Beneath the Surface

by Rachel Johnson and Pamela Worth

The four years we have spent in high school have been a time of growing, learning, and dreaming. We have discovered new things about ourselves and those around us every day. The theme "Beneath the Surface" allows us to think about the minds, feelings, and personalities underneath the trendy clothes and smiling faces that we see every day.

As members of the Class of '98, we have grown both personally and as a whole. Each individual in our class has matured; all of us have had our struggles and accomplishments. We have faced our fears about the future, and realized our dreams.

As a class, we have welcomed new people and offered our friendship; we have said goodbye to close companions, and promised to keep in touch. We have collectively stressed over tests, SAT's - forming our own support group. We have shared many happy moments, dancing together, laughing together - even diving into Walden Pond together! -, and showing our school spirit.

To anyone else, we appear to be a class of academic achievers, superior athletes, wonderful actors, and superb musicians. This is all true, but as we know, we are much more than that. The bond we have created is a strong one, and because of that, we have allowed ourselves to be caught when we were falling, and to be pushed when we were lagging behind. We know that what appears on the surface is not necessarily what is underneath.

Stayin' Alive

by Sarah Toole

1997's Junior Prom was an incredible success. Through the hard work of the Prom Committee under Susan Mara and Kelly Dutton, the new cafeteria became a "Black Hole" dance hall of the future. Preparations took a long time but the work was well worth it. Everyone at the prom enjoyed the decor and company.

The music was rockin' and kept people dancing until the last minute. As our theme song, "Stayin' Alive", echoed through the crowded room, a huge conga line formed, and snaked around the dance floor.

The Prom Court was an eclectic mix of people. With Shaun Fillion as the King and Meredith Campbell as the Queen, Dan Rashba, Tom Webster, Mark Kreuger, Matt Abt, Kacie Kennedy, Robin Grace, Susan Mara and Kelly Dutton made an admirable court.

The night provided many great memories. The class of 1998 would like to thank all of the chaperones for volunteering to help us. Our prom was a magical evening and we wish this year's juniors much luck with theirs.

When the Teachers Aren't Looking

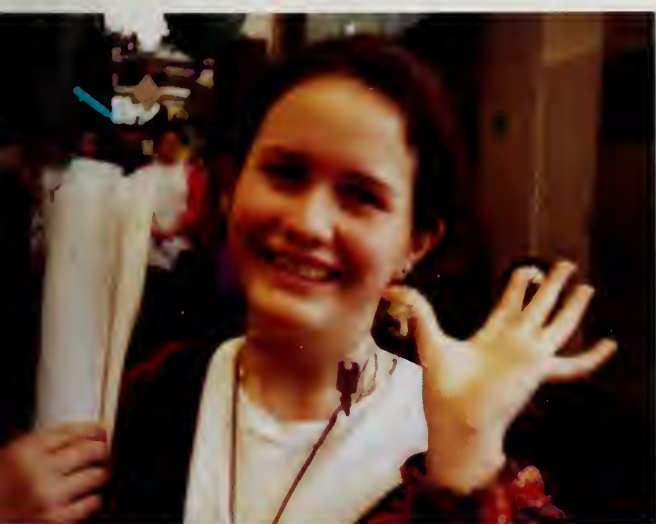

Yes, we do have lives outside of school! In fact, BHS students do lots of things unrelated to school, that many of us do not know about. Some might even tell you that their activities take up more time than school. This page is dedicated to those brave individuals who have dared to have social lives outside of hallowed walls.

Telemedia is a big group of students who share a purpose: to make the wackiest possible morning news show for the student population of BHS. With talent who speak to brooms, crew who play Monty Python over the T.V.'s for as long as they can, candid videos of sleepy students being awakened at 5:00 a.m., and roll-ins of dancing underclassmen, BHS Live! members should consider their purpose filled.

Forum is a group of talented writers and photographers who produce a page of articles written by BHS students and published monthly in The Bedford Minuteman. Forum gives students a chance to put their opinions and thoughts in print for the town of Bedford to read. The newspaper's chief contributors this year were Assistant Editors Shan Patel, Leslie Minchin, Dave DeBartelo, Carl Larson, Editor-in-Chief Pamela Worth, Staff Writers Derek O, Andrew Churella, Greta Lynn, Seth Perkins, Brett Samuels, and Tracy Samuels.

This year Bedford High School has once again been blessed by the presence of a debate team. Early each year, the team, led by its vivacious coach, Mr. Milliken, looks to recruit elite personnel from the incoming freshmen. This marks the second year of Coach Milliken's plan to create an intimate squad of "die-hard debaters" to compete with local opponents, but so far the team seems to consist mostly of contentious juniors, sophomores, and freshmen who end up debating each other more than any other teams. However, debate was once again fun, and everyone is encouraged to go out for the team next year, as there is nothing in school quite like debate team. This year's successes include hosting the quickest debate tournament and getting a much-deserved article in the yearbook. With a new debate course being offered next year, Mr. Milliken looks to the future and says, "The best days of the Bedford Debate Team are on the horizon waiting for the Earth and Bedford's team to simultaneously rotate into success."

Each year, four students from the Junior class are chosen based on academic achievement and overall character to attend Girls' State and Boys' State. Both events give students the opportunity not only to learn about government at the state and local levels, but also to participate in mock campaigns and elections for government positions. The week-long event is a wonderful educational opportunity, as well as a time when many life-long friendships are made.

Pam: Wow, Rachel, it's the end of the year! Rachel: Yeah! P: We sure did a lot of work, Rachel. Will you miss it? R: Yes and no. It was a lot of fun, but it was a lot of work too. It was definitely a character building experience, though. P: Can we say the word "work" once more in a sentence? Work, work, work. Well, that is what yearbook is about. Work and lots of coffee. R: Yes, coffee is good. Well now, let's get on to the point of this article: thanking everyone who has made this yearbook possible--including ourselves. P: Can we focus in on the "ourselves" part? R: I thought that simply by saying that, I was. P: Oh. I can focus on myself if you want to sacrifice your space. R: Fine, being the wonderful, caring person that I am, I think I will. First, I think we should let Sarah Toole know how much she has helped us this year. Her work as the Editor-at-Large required many extra hours, headaches, and... coffee. P: Many, many, many props to Sarah, who was here every day and every night helping us lay out those funky pages. And since she expects me to say it by now, "I know we need a Prom Court page!" Sarah, you rock. Next? R: Hmmm, how about Jen Conroy, our all-important, money raising, yearbook selling Business Editor? P: Well, Rachel, I don't really want to thank Jen. It's not like she was here, like, all the time doing money stuff, page stuff, and bringing us yummy food and bean dip. Thanks so much, Jen. We love you! R: Yeah, thanks babe. Let's see, who now? Derek! P: "Uh, yeah, Pam? What do you think about seals and kelp for underclassmen?" Derek is The Answer Man...actually, he was the only man in yearbook for quite a while. He's the one who whipped up all those crazy divider pages and tried to keep us thematic. R: Thank you, Design Editor. Okay, now for our last editor: Laura Gavornik. P: Laura was responsible for the underclassmen section and some of the sports pages. She helped us on the days when no one else would. R: Thank you Laura! Now, on to the rest of the yearbook staff who helped us with whatever we needed, whenever we needed it. Stan (The Mac Daddy)-thank you for being a freshmen, for hugs, for letting us boss you around...P: for annoying the heck out of me and donating your Legos and blanket to the room! R: We love you, Stan. P: Dan, and Brian thank both of you for providing cynical freshmen perspectives, for doing gofer work, and for being our buddies. R: Thanks also to Pranitan Kulholm, Shauna Crehan, and Dina Dvinov! You guys never freaked out when we were pulling our hair out and demanding impossible numbers of pages to be completed, or zillions of pictures to be organized. P: Props to Catherine Hill, Seth Perkins, Ben Rifken, Krissy Ela, Carrie Frank, Natalie Weiner, Kristen Kremer, and Anna Larson for helping us with odd jobs. R: Okay, now to thank some of the most important people: those people who came in to say hi to us during our most stressful times, and ended up staying for hours learning how to crop pictures, lay out pages, and learn PageMaker. P: Names! Andy York, Adam Weston, Jesse Belknap, Colin Honkus McDonough, Jen Simpson, and Brian Conway started out "just dropping by," and ended up harnessed to our computers. R: Some people did manage to dodge the yearbook trap, and simply came in to say hi every once in a while. They deserve thanks for providing much-needed distractions. Stefan Iwanchuk, Elissa Dill, Bryan Nash, Jeff and Jon St. Saveur, you're in here just for being friendly. P: A hearty thank you also goes to the senior class officers - especially Meredith Campbell, Shaun Fillion, and Dan Rashba. They proofed the senior thanks -a tedious task -, and didn't complain about it. R: Thank you guys! Probably the single most important person on yearbook is Mr. Rinaldi, our advisor. He lived with the stress of yearbook every day. Even beyond problems with the plant, parents, and students, he had us to deal with! P: A whole staff full of girls and Derek... He had to listen to all our dumb stories, all our stupid singalongs, and even cope with our occasional teary outbursts. We love you, Mr. Rinaldi! Thanks for all those tons of pretzels. R: and apple juice; don't forget the apple juice. Well Pam, I think the only person left for me to thank is you. I want to thank you for ignoring me when I screamed about unimportant things; for tolerating my inexplicable need to go the bathroom every five minutes, and for everything else in between. I love you. P: Rachel, you are no less than a saint in my eyes. You let me sleep on your shoulder over incomprehensible things ("I can't find page 42!"), and you let me sing to you. You let me yell at everyone on the staff systematically, and then stepped in as an arbitrator, you fixed everything I screwed up, and you tolerated all my mysterious phone calls. R: Yeah, I think we made a pretty good team. P: Pretty darn good, if I may swear. R: I've heard you swear worse than that. Anyway, I guess it's over now. I will miss it. P: I'll miss it harder. I loved yelling at people. R: Me too. Well, GOOD-BYE!! P: On behalf of everyone on the staff, we hope you enjoy your yearbook. But if you don't enjoy it, you're not the people to tell. We're very proud of all our work. R: Definitely. And we're proud of everyone who helped make it happen.

Jazz It Up!!

by Sarah Toole

With the funky sounds of "Son of a Preacher Man" and the swing beat of "In the Mood", the Jazz Band rocked the BHS Auditorium last year. Ever since then, people have been wondering how they could possibly top a spectacular year, but they have. Under Mr. Leagan's magnificent leadership, Jazz Band has wowed audiences all over Bedford. So, if you come to a Jazz Band concert this year, don't be suprised if you see people dancing in the aisles.

Eyes With Pride

article by Pamela Worth

The Marching Band - under the direction of Mr. Reagan for the fourth year - had an incredible season. Starting at Camp Coniston, NH in August, and ending at Thanksgiving, the band worked their hardest yet to produce a stunning field show. Drum Majors Jon and Jeff St. Saveur led the band to success as they performed at various competitions, football games, and parades, playing songs from Star Wars. The highlight of the season was their performance at Abington Band Jamboree, where they received four-plus stars for their show. This year's seniors would like to wish next year's band luck, and thank Mr. Reagan for an incredible four years.

The BHS Marching Band: Jen Diemer, Alissa Lee, Trevor Donnell, Bryan Nash, Stefan Iwanchuk, Jeff St. Saveur, Brian Laundry, Vikram Sridharan, Pat Baxter, Brian Conway, Matt Waldron, Ellen Humphrey, Erin Boyd, Jon St. Saveur, Dave LaCharite, Elissa Dill, Emalie Parkhurst, Jen Simpson, Marianne Roseland, Pamela Worth, Katie Boyd, Katie Roe, Dan Buttrick, Catherine Healy, Chris Springer, Ben Foster, Jacob Buttrick, Kristin Fehlau, Shannon Fillion, Shari Dangel [Not pictured: Colin McDonough, Sarah Toole, Sarah Vanderwall, Danielle DeMoss]

“Wooden Boxes With Strings”

article by Jesse Belknap

Wooden boxes with strings - that's what the BHS orchestra and chamber ensemble are all about (excepting the flutists, of course). Led by the fearless Sir Philip Maffa, the orchestra performs in several concerts each year with the rest of the music department.

The chamber ensemble is a group of highly motivated musicians who forfeit their social lives in order to practice the difficult pieces of music assigned to them. In addition to playing with the orchestra, these students perform for the annual madrigal dinner and smaller, student-led groups.

After every concert they play, both orchestra and chamber ensemble hear large amounts of praise from concert-goers. This year's seniors will miss their BHS orchestral experience, and admonish the underclassmen to practice!

Drama Club

by Sarah Toole

The Drama Club, as in years past, has been successful in entertaining all of Bedford High. This year, it took a while to get off of its feet, but once established, the club gained momentum. The Tournament of Plays was incredible with all classes doing a magnificent job. The night was an eclectic mix of humor, drama, and stories of visitors from outerspace as well as the TV set. In the end, the seniors took home the coveted Best Play award. And, as it is a tradition, the Club went to New York City and saw the musical "Chicago," and the acclaimed play, "The Diary of Anne Frank." With Mr. McDonald and Ms. Coyle as it's leaders, the Drama Club will continue to be the best show in town.

The Class With Three Nines

by Shan Patel

After being together for ten full years, the Class of '99 has begun to show signs of coming together. One year more and we're gone, thankfully. Junior year is definitely the most involved year of a student's academic career. It is THE YEAR. Some juniors are aware of colleges looking over their shoulders, while others are salivating at the chance to get out of high school. All in all, junior year is the year in which everything peaks. Academically, students have options to take the courses that they choose, and socially, the car becomes a daily part of the junior's life.

The Class of '99 has great expectations to fill (as another class with three 9's won't come for ten thousand years). So enjoy us while we're here because we're ephemeral - for any of my classmates out there, that means fast-fleeting. I have a feeling that this class will have loads of fun next year, but even if it doesn't, I will. Let the graduation parties begin: one year, and gone forever!

Class of ... 2001

We are no longer the minnows, no longer the baitfish upper classmen feed off. We ARE due paying members of this school. We can swim freely in this mass of humanity. We no longer get lost in the halls, or are harrassed by the great white sharks of the High School. We're important! We earned our respect! We belong! We are still growing and will one day become powerful enduring trophy fish. But for now we will continue to grow, open our eyes wider and search for experiences, knowledge, friends, sports, activities and the traditions of our school. We have endured what may be the hardest part of our high school lives, and we have survived! Can't wait for next year!

Staff

Good-Bye Louie!

Long before any of us went to BHS, before we were even born, Louie has been a member of our janitorial staff. Mr. D'Andragora has cleaned up our messes, no matter how bad for a long time, to be specific, 24 years. He is retiring this year, after many years of diligent service, and watching many of us graduate. Many people believe that he has become a part of BHS, and that part will be sorely missed once he leaves.

A black and white photograph of a dolphin leaping from the water, creating a splash. The dolphin is captured in mid-air, with its body arched and its tail visible. The water is dark and textured with ripples. On the right side of the image, the word "sports" is written vertically in a large, white, stylized font. The letters are slightly irregular, giving it a hand-drawn or artistic feel. The overall composition is dynamic and energetic.

Chicks With Sticks

This year's field hockey season was disappointing to some. Bedford's girls struggled in their games against more experienced teams, played their best each time, but were met with losses. This did not dampen the girls' spirit, however. Through bonding with the New Kids and wearing their field hockey jackets, the team solidified, and became recognized as one of the most spirited in school.

by Stephanie Potter

Through hard work, perseverance, and heart, the Varsity Girls Soccer team accomplished their motto in the '97 season. With a roster of 14 seniors, they elevated the team to push harder and showed what real spirit it takes to make a successful team. One of the main highlights of the season was making it to the State Tournament, something that BHS girls soccer has not accomplished in 11 years. This couldn't have been done without the always-threatening offense provided by: Erin Slavin, Laura Olson, Susan Mara, Kacie Kennedy, Joanna McInnis, Katie Bowen, Carrie Shamel, Jessie McGrath, and Lindsay Harrington, or the strong defense composed of Stephanie Potter, Joanna Thoren, Elena Vasilakis, Rashmi Kaul, and starting goalie Nikki Downs. Sharon Betz, Colleen Gleason, and Sara Minue helped add to the team in the second half of the season. With great coaching from Kristen Maskalenko and determination from the team, the DCL has learned to always remember Bedford Girls' Soccer for playing until the final whistle blew.

Boy's Soccer

Drew Ratichek balances the soccer ball on his nose.

It was an amazing season for the boys' varsity soccer. The team, composed of 12 seniors, was determined to be state champs this year.

Captain Mark Kruger forms the core of the team while co-captains Dave Matteo, Tom Webster, Matt Abt, Dan Rashba managed to create the team's unmatched performance. The freshmen, as well, played an extremely important role in the team's success. Richie and Alan Tomykowski along with Johnny Whalon gave the team superior skills and scored unbelievable game-winning goals.

The boys' team finished the regular season with a record of 4:7:5, qualifying them for the state tournament. The games was at Minuteman Tech, whose record was 15:2, and ended with a one: nothing shoot-out against Bedford's star goalie Jon Tate. Tate's season was superior to any other DCL goalies' with unmatched saves and excellent effort.

Despite the loss of the state championships, Coach Dave Wilson wasn't a bit disappointed by the performance of any player. It was the best season in years, and the seniors wish luck to next year's team.

The Varsity Girls Basketball team excited many people this season with their long awaited qualification into the State Tournament. Lead by Captain Kacie Kennedy and two of the DCL's leading scorers-Carli Parisella and Beth Ziulek-, the Bucs gave it their all every game through strong offense and a tenacious defense. They entered the Tournament with a winning 12-8 record, and even though Game 1 vs. Central Catholic ended up as a loss, the Lady Bucs proved their talent this season without a doubt. Best of wishes to sole senior Kacie Kennedy who will be continuing her career at Connecticut College, and good luck to next year's team in hopes of a season just as exciting and successful as this past one.

Hockey

The BHS hockey team has had an amazing year. For the first time in seventeen years, they made it to States which was a great achievement. It was hard work, but they made it with an record of 8 and 1. Captain Ned Chaney said, "We worked really well together, and got along well. We came together like no other team I've been on before." After a great season, BHS hockey players feel great about how they played. Teamwork and cooperation seem to be the keys to a fun-filled, victorious season.

Rifle Team

The quest for perfection along with the ability of superhuman control to put a hole dead center in a piece of paper. This is the purpose of Rifle Team. This season saw the absence of several members while there were many promising newcomers. With spectacular leadership on the part of Pat Mahoney and Brian Conway, the team had a great year. The returning team members taught the large number of freshmen the basics of the sport as well as creating a strong sense of comradery. Ask any team member and they'll tell you that Rifle is tons of fun. They are bound to have great success in future years.

A League of Their Own

The Bedford Varsity softball 1997 season was a success! They made it to the second round of State Championships, and send three players to the OCL All-Star team. A lot of hard work and togetherness went into this.

Throughout the year, they depended on their pitcher, Sara Jostrom, to overcome anything and play behind the plate, Meg Amel and Karen Thomas helped Sara along. Chris O'Reilly, Kristine Hanson, Geri Parisella, and Jenn Robb knocked down anything that came their way. Carli Parisella, Erin Slavin, and Kristin Hurd got any hits that passed through the infield. With Jenn Williams, Bethany Russo, Liz Manaria, and Caitlin Romano backing up their weak spots, the team seemed invincible.

Departed seniors wish '98's team luck!

Baseball

Bedford baseball showed once again how they are quite a force to be reckoned with. Coaches Sabourin and Sullivan led their team to an amazing 14-4 league record. Bedford finished just one game behind, but still defeated twice league champion Concord. The Bucs great season was led by seniors Mike Reed, Gary Martin, and Steve Lua. The team won their second consecutive Newburyport Tournament. With momentum from their regular season, the Bucs stormed their way to state semi-finals. Next year looks to be promising with Curt Warrington returning to the second team Lowell Sun All-Star and an experienced team. Hopefully the Bucs will capture their third Championship in four years.

Boys' Tennis

The 1996-97 tennis team was very dedicated; they played and practiced every day. If it rained, practice was held inside. The varsity team practiced alone every day, competing against each other to improve their games. J.V., on the other hand, learned new tips and skills every day from the coach. In matches, they played their best.

The 1997 Girls Tennis team had a successful year. The team experienced the loss of many valuable players, but this did not affect the tremendous effort put in by the girls. The team was led by seniors Nadya Volicier, Nina Harvey, and Jean Connelly. Two freshmen - Kari Kachelmeyer and Suzanne Kim - also helped the team greatly, playing the top two single spots. Watch for another successful season next year!

Head! Heart! Hustle!

This season was a great season for the Bedford Lacrosse team. With help from coach Jeff Snow the team made it to the state tournament. The defense was lead by senior captian Jay Randazzo, Angelo Defino, and newcomer Chris Hevey. All-Star goalie Nick Sabella also backed the team up by keeping scores low. More great help was added by the middies: Mark Lorusso, Mike Presti, Mark Kruger, Aron Feiring, Dave Matteo, and John Tate. Attackmen Brian Oates, Justin Kessler, and Ned Chaney added many goals. With a new coach on the way, next year should be great. Watch Out!

Runners, Take Your Marks!

The Bedford High School track team only heard these words a few times this season; with four meets scheduled for the entire season, it was hard for the Bedford Buccaneers to show the other teams their stuff. However, they proved themselves at each meet, running, jumping, and throwing to the best of their abilities. They worked hard at practices, and scored well at competitions.

Star runners were Caroline Leary, who ran long-distance, and Devin McPhie, who ran the 400m and the 300 hurdles. Both were consistent winners. Norman Pryce also placed high in his best event, the triple-jump.

Next year's team will do just as well - if not better - than last year's, with many of its top runners/jumpers returning. Best of luck to them!

First I would like to thank God for helping me through the past 17 years of my life. I would like to thank my dad for being there for me and pushing me to reach higher and to achieve my highest goals. I really don't think I could have done it without you. Thank you Sandy for listening when I needed someone to talk to. And thanks for attempting to help me with my math homework in the past. Thank you mom for setting me on the right path when I needed to be put there. Thanks Bob for all the times you let me drive your car. Thank you Grandma and Papa for always being there. I only lived with you for the first couple years of my life, even still, you both had a great impact on my life. Thanks to Michelle, Nicole, Shelly, Amy and Kristie for being there and for just being my sisters. Special thanks to Michelle and Nicole for ALWAYS being there when I needed to talk. Thank you

Pam Worth for being a friend through 11 years. Thank you Kelley Perry for being a great friend Freshman and Sophomore year. I won't ever forget you. I miss you. Thanks to Emily Perry. You're a great friend and you're like a sister to me. Thanks for being there through my Junior and Senior year. And thanks to you too for pushing me to do better! Even though it didn't work sometimes Pam, Kelley and Emily you are great friends. I love you guys for everything! Thank you Jeff St. Sauveur for always being there for me. You are truly a great friend I love you always! Thank you to Jon St. Sauveur for caring and being a friend. Final thanks goes to Ms. Savarino. Hey Ms. Sav., I remembered you are a Ms. not a Mrs.!! For 4 years I endured all the nagging! But I am proud to say that it paid off. Thank you for pushing me to do better in all of my classes. If you hadn't been there to push me from behind, I wouldn't have been able to push ahead and move forward, and I wouldn't be where I am now. Thank you to all of my friends that I regretfully did not thank. You know I love you guys! Thanks again to all my family, friends and teachers who made a great impact on my life. Couldn't have done it without any of you. I love you all!

Future goals: To go to Blaine beauty school earn a certificate and someday run my own beauty salon I will also someday get married and have 2-3 kids.

Sincere thanks to my entire family: my Mom and Dad for their support, love, consideration, and tolerance of Cursed For Eternity's racket, my good friend and other Mike and best friend Pat (close enough to family) helping me make the racket as well as for your valued friendship, humor, and empathy, my brother Jason for being able to take all the slowness jokes (It's Jaaaaayyyy) and being the youngest death head around, Nana and Papa and Grandma and Grandpa for your kindness, Sara (so close enough to family) for being a friend and putting up with the Jawa jokes (ootidee!!), Steve and his family for the years of companionship, and my endless list of aunts, uncles, cousins, and so on. Hail to the "Black Hole of Bedford": Mike, Pat, Colin, Mark, Sara, Steph Alex, Steph R., Ginny, and Meff; the New Hampshire is: Josh, Chris, and all the other people that were ever Destro; the unsigned MANH bands: Destro, Cyhyreath, Whering Spring, and Drophm; anyone I've played street dice hockey with; Kitty for being a good friend and ummm... an interesting person to hang around with; Sheila being so quite; Erica for your past friendship and sent; my friends from Burlington: Arian, Lisa, Holly, Gia, Melissa, Michelle, Eats, Kirsten, and Amy; the people that have bought a CFE demo or helped us in anyway too numerous to name. Thanks to the following teachers: Mr. Mod for the nickname that just will not die, Taub for the interest in CFE, Mr. Sabourin for giving confidence in my mathematical abilities, Mr. Palmer being the funniest teacher alive, Mr. Milliken for being the first English teacher that made sense to me, any others that I managed to actually learn something from. Without the motivation from the thousands of terrible bands and musicians out there I would never have striven to be better than you; thank you. A special word of thanks to Rob Sanders, who to me epitomizes the Cristian Church, MTV, Marilyn Manson, alternative music exgirlfriends, and politics for keeping me thinking about things that I despise in an intellectual way. My influences and role models: my father, H.P. Lovecraft, Fer Tagtgren, Anton LaVey, Sean Reinhart, Dave Lombardo, Euronymous, Dead, Mozart, and Mathias Lham. Things I'm thankful for: my friends and family (obviously), Cursed For Eternity, my drums for letting me be as hard as I want for the past five years without ever complaining, my computer for being the only thing that says what I want it to and never yells back at me, The Pheasant Lane Mall, Taco Bell, black clothes, and my jackets. Also, thanks to anyone else that I manage to get along with in my classes. Without the support of several people on this list, I would not be the person that I am today, if even here; you know who you are and to you I give eternal thanks.

To start, I want to thank my mom and dad for putting up with me being such a pain in the butt, giving me rides everywhere, and just being really cool parents.
 Abby - you're a really cool little sister, even if I don't admit it most of the time. Lilian - thanks for being an awesome sister, wearing pants with things in them, putting up with me and all of my friends, and most of all just being a great friend. Martin for being my best friend, going away to college and leaving me here, becoming a part of the Bedford crowd, never getting your license, the $15 bass, trying to start a band, and the clown joke.
 You're like a brother to me. Dave - two years of Fisix.
 Need I say more? Anyway, thanks for always being there for me, listening to whatever I needed to tell you, and being a madrigal mascot. Laura G for random trips to the mall, pit, writing poetry at town meeting. Andy for showing up at my house and asking for soup, naming my car, annoying Matthews in AP Calc, destroying my Sublime CD. Régan for being an eleven year old troll,op, putting your butt on my birthday card, and being short.
 Jeff - I know that there's something I need to thank you for, but I just can't put my hand on it. Honkus for blowing stuff up and not calling the cops on me when I stole your hubcaps. Frack for burgers and lots of other stuff. Shaun for being in all my classes and taping every single sporting event ever. Shannon for being little Esmeralda Fillion.
 Sarah V for being cute. Katie and Marianne for feeding me at Brueger's expense. Conway for sending me an infinite number of pointless e-mails. Nash for looking like Jesus. Jen and Greg for the semi-nonexistent band.
 Jen D for being my photo buddy. Jen C for wearing cow pants and driving a purple Neon. Steve for grafix. Laura J for telling me about Barbie and riding with me to gbyso.
 Jackie for drivers ed, watching the marching band, junior prom, using your cell phone way too much. Shari for corrupting Laura J. Dan for sending me lots of email that I never answered. Don Juan for giving me someone to make fun of. Elissa for complaining about my driving.
 Steph and Robin for being the nicest people alive. Pam for putting me in charge of the froshlings. Sarah T for being a cool stand partner. Stefan :-) CFE for coming on BHS Live!!! and getting the Lord in trouble. Emalie for riding in my car when no one else would. Nat for being my French buddy. Ryan for losing my birthday present.
 Ellen for telling me that it works better out of the water.
 Allissa for hugs. Trevor for making great sandwiches.
 Spink for your gym locker. Suzanne for hitting me when I swore. Francesca Broom Woman for saving my butt on

Thanks to God for always looking over me and making things happen for a reason. To my mom for raising me by yourself. For always providing for me and never giving up. To grandpa thanks for showing how to be a man. I love you, I hope you and grandma are happy in heaven.
 To dad I wish you had made an attempt to visit me through high school. To Becky thanks for teaching me about life-stick with college. To grandma thanks for all the love you gave me when I was being a brat and for letting me beat you at old maid. To the Andersons thanks for making my summers great I hope I can visit you soon.
 Mr. Maxwell thanks for being the best teacher, I know you'll make an even better vice-principal. Coach Sab, Sully, and Petrillo thanks for teaching me football and to be a man. Thanks to the Thoms family for all the Christmas presents you guys are like family. Thanks to uncle John, Joyce, Josh and Jasmine for letting me stay at your house during summer. To the Websters thanks for being great neighbors. Thanks to the Sylvesters for treating me like family and always going out of their way for me.
 Thanks to all the other families who have allowed me into their homes and shown great hospitality-McGraths, Morellos, Rossis, Sullivans, and Dolans. Angelo-Thanks for being in all my classes 7-10th grade. You're one of my best friends even though you always got me in trouble and got me bad grades. We had a lot of fun together and I know you'll be successful in life. Denmark-It's a good thing you moved to Whitman or I'd probably be in prison.
 Ryan-You were my best friend since 5th grade I wish you never moved to Chelmsford. Thanks for always lying, letting me throw knives at you, being a weird kid, and always making me laugh. Chris-I'm glad I got to know you. You always put me in a good mood. I've never met such a big kid that was so nice. Thanks for being my hoochie in the challenge. Good luck in college I know you'll be da bomb at football. Steve-You're my favorite hick. Thanks for always partying, being one of the coolest base kids and for using dope lines. Chea-You were my first base friend. Watch what you say. You are TROUBLE, but you're funny. Thanks for making fun of anybody. Dan-Thanks for always partying with me when no one else would. I've never met anybody with so many problems.
 I'll always have your back unlike Jeff. Don't start fights in college. Vinnie-You're one of my oldest friends. Good luck at west point, I'm counting on you to boss sully around. Thanks for hanging at Frank's, whiffle ball, and for being Mike Rosenberg's boyfriend. Corey-Thanks for being so many races. I'm glad you didn't move. Stay in touch out of highschool brother. Jeff-Thanks for being the weirdest kid ever. Thanks for building 19, breakdancing, dolemite, and just cruising around. You're one of the only kids I trust with my secrets. Good luck you rich puke.
 Mike-Besides that stupid fight(sorry) we've been good friends. You better visit us when you can. Thanks for dancing like the whitest man ever, fire trucks, and always fixing things. Good luck in the army. Me and Bree will be waiting for you when you get back. Lucas-You're probably my only friend that hasn't really annoyed me. Thanks for always taking my jokes and being down for whatever.
 "Cross country team will — you up!" Thanks to the '97 boys: Eric-for building 19, runs, and being a weird kid.
 Brad-for always partying, teasing me. Sundet-taking me out, runs. Anurag-MIT and always making me laugh. Dougbustin rhymes, making fun of me. Mook-letting me sleep over, being a nice kid. Oatsy-being my date to the semi-formal, letting me chill at your house. Omar-having 100 cats, sitting with us at lunch, taking all my jokes. Todd-for being the funniest kid and the biggest spaz. Ja-for always smoking and making me laugh. BobbyM-for always wanting to fight, having no patience, always getting busted, and always partying. Good luck in whatever you do. Brent-for always getting me in trouble and always making me laugh. Pete-For being the smartest kid alive, and always practicing bball. Garafolo-for being a midget, for driving us around, and for driving like an idiot. Korikfor saying I'd rather not, listening to weird music, and for taking all my religious jokes. Tom-for being my first friend in Bedford. Mark-for letting me chill at your house.
 Sorry about the bathroom brother. Curt-for getting grounded until college, for beating up coach Burns. Wu-Tang 4-eva. Frank-Thanks for being one of my best friends.
 I really regret that we don't see each other as much. We had a lot of fun-playing golf, selling x-mas trees, acting crazy. I hope we get to see each other more often. Goodluck playing bball at Matignon. Kacie-for being my best friend in middle school. Joannathanks for all the talks and always partying. Laura-for the pinchpot, partying, and being a good friend. Katelyn-for being my first girlfriend. Bree-for being my best girl friend, for always having my back, and for taking care of me. Thanks to Steph and Lesa for treating me like a peice of meat. Thanks to Alvin, Akil, Ben, Cox, T.C., Nolan, Matteo, Mark, Drew, Sabella, Pat, Nick, Jaci, Kristln, Molly, Mer, Meg, Erin, Jen, Stacey, Susan, Mike Lee, Hartwell, Croxford, Danny, Jaime, Marianne, Twombly, Rebecca, Amy, Jessica, Andrea, Kendra, Bentley, Michael, Richie, Allen, Tommy, Epple, and Heather. Thanks a lot, I'm sorry I don't have any room to write. Thanks to all my football teammates: Duke, Harry, Jack, Bradfield, Ryan, Keith, Presti, Darren, Marcus, Craig and Franklin. Good luck next year. Katie-thanks for being my first love. You are the nicest girl I've ever met. We've been through so much together. I'll always remember our times together.

First of all, I'd like to thank my parents. You raised me to be the person I am, to believe in myself. Adam and Ian, you both were great people for me to admire while I was growing up. I love you guys so much and miss you dearly. Erin, we've been through many great experiences, as well many bad, but I want you to know that I love you a lot, no matter what I act like sometimes. Kristen, you are so sweet, I'm very happy for you and Adam. Marianne, you are like another sister. It's hard to remember life without you around. Thanks for being a good friend, driving around, Florida, flashing, slush puppies, cones, hitting trash cans, Smashing Pumpkins, porn, Flesh Gordon, Brueggers, stalking Bryan, 15B, spaghetti on the ceiling, sleepovers, Stand By Me, Andy's bed, study, driving onto the memorial into the bay, the playground, shotgun, the walk in Cambridge, Prosepina(Joan of Arc), cheating at dots, Hot Tamales, Taco Bell, General chicken, Haribo, krowebahrs, goats!, flags, your tooth(Mentos!), keeno cruising strip, UMASS, the Hill, Canadian Geese, Hempfest, South Park, "I like Elvis.", "Not it!". Bryan, you are so excellent. I trust you so much and hope nothing ever changes. I consider you one of my closest friends. We've shared many great times, thanks. Shotgun (in my own car!), talking about everything, letting me stare at/stalk you, bowling (for shotgun), 15B, band camp, the walk (3 times...Hey Now!), driving onto the memorial in Boston, LaserMetallica, Nature's Stepchild, quarters, 36 inches, $500, power pasties, letting me watch you work on your car, teaching me about the parts, green plaid boxers, the walk in Cambridge, Mikey, the Jack-O-Lantern, sweet and full of cream, Roy Rogers, sandwiches, Bruegger bars, history class, moving cars at Andy's, Trick-or-Treating, "Hey now.", Mmm.. Bryan, rides in your car, smiles =), the playground, staying out 'til 2:45AM, Eric A's party, 4th of July, kosher, corn on the cob, peeing on the hill, "Sounds like my bed.", pneumonoultramicroscopicsilicovolcanoconiosis, being cute, the parking lot. Jen S., you've done so much for me over the years. Remember: The Neilds, Youth Group, cones, the countless rides to school (thank you!), and everything else that has left my mind because of the pressure. Ms. Pamela, you make my world go around. I don't know what I would have done without: 7th grade social studies, Washington DC, band camp, Jamie Fox, Mtv's The State, Funny Purple Pam, special drinks, Davis School playground, Chadwick's (Jason Barth, Boob Guy, FOY, etc.), Walden Books, Minuteman Bikepath-"Who's Gonna Ride Your Wild Horses?", lunch this year. Emalie, you are there for everything, to talk to, to listen to. Thanks for always being there, letting me and Marianne wake you up at 11:30 PM to take you to sleep over Marianne's, being outspoken, and all else. Thanks to: Sarah V.- Bruegger's, "Hey, be nice! It's Christmas", Frozen Grapes, "Ashley", "Not it!". Andy- cones, your bed, Senior citizen's discount, driving onto the memorial in Boston, following a trolley, trusting me, Sunday nights. Honkus- Woodstock video, Bruegger's, making me laugh, "Not it!". Jesse- for being so cool and hiding your beautiful hair. Dave- Bruegger's, for having such neat toys, being generally neat, and "Not it!". Adam- for being so goofy. Sarah T.- for always being there. Emily-"Did I get hit?", gym (sorry I keep tripping you!!), and everything else. Jen D.- for being fun and for having the biggest mouth (that's good and bad. don't take offense.) Jen C.- for cheering me up and for being such a great person to be around. Stefan- for being sooo bad, introducing me to lots of cool bands, being fun, and for smiles =). Alissa- having all the parties and being friendly to everyone. Elissa- for giving constructive criticism to all. To the Marching Band (including all the flags)- for making this year, as well as all the others, such a great time. I would forget all the good times we've all shared, as a group separately. This was definitely the best experience from high school. Jon and Jeff- you guys make really good drum majors and really good friends. Don't change. A Reagan- You are the greatest teacher I have ever had. You have made high school a very memorable experience for me and I will always remember everything you have done for me and the band. Lisa- for making flags so cool and being patient with all of us. Dan- for being so adorable and sweet. Youth Group- for having so much fun always welcoming me with loving arms. UU Senior Youth for being excellent fun, Rocky Horror Picture Show, and for all the great friends I've made. Eric- You've given me the inspiration to always stand up for what I believe in. Miss you. Pat D.- We've had a lot of great times in childhood as well as now. Those were all special, and I sure we'll add to that list later on in life. Regan- for being so cool throughout your mind, heart, and soul. Torrey for giving great hugs and always being nice. Chris- being really neat and a dirty old pickle (tee-hee.) and having such cute friends like Mr. Jamie Fox. Trevor- you are genuinely nice and that's a great aspect, so try not to lose it. Ryan- for being a friend for so many years. All childhood friends- we had a lot of good things: Friend Forever Club, Club VM, and New Kids on the Block. Denny- you are cool and taught me a lot about myself. I hope we will keep in touch for a long time. To my freshmen buddies- for being yourselves. Tommy- you are nice, if you try, I know that for sure. To any one I may have forgotten, I'm sorry. I love you all very much and would not have changed any of you for anything in this world. You've made my life worth so much. Thank you.

activities: field hockey, clubs 1,2,3,4 Thanks: First, and most importantly, to Mom and Dad for all you have done for me. I can't thank you enough for all the love and support you've given me though the years. I love you! Kathryn - thanks for pointing out that salsa doesn't smell good when you're not expecting it, watching me spill tea, Pool Rock, "too white!", for putting up with my friends (especially Ben). Thanks for always laughing at dinner with me until we get in trouble. You're the best little sister I could ever ask for, thanks for being so great. Kelly for owing me "nice things" (and giving them in a certificate), for the bear in Maine, for the guy at Essex, for always thinking the same thing at the same time, for crying in the window for little boys, "Fire is hot," BHOB, when I faked having a mouthguard! We've been through much together I don't know where to begin. Thanks for being such a great friend through thick and thin. You've taught me so much over the years about being able to laugh at myself and not take life so seriously. And, I'll love you know, you're pretty noble too. Heather - my best friend, thanks for showing me the truth about my sister, Darth Vader's helmet, and other life lessons. Remember fighting (for real) about capture the flag, remember Munch Munch! I'll never forget the night we watched "Black Sheep" and had the ugly contest. Thanks for always lifting my spirits just when I needed it. Bethany for being anal-compulsive and knowing it, for always giving gum, for never being afraid to cry - I know the four of us will always be together. You guys are the best. Tom - remember piece jokes in English, French Club stuff, when we went out to dinner and you spilled Coke all over yourself! You've seen me at my best and my worst and always supported me. Thanks for being such a great friend. Matt and Ben - thanks for being the funniest neighbors a girl could ask for. Ben - for having so many girls and for rollerblading with Kathryn, Matt - for the old school v Hills and letting us put makeup on you (I promise, I won't tell anyone). Molly - For endless hours of ballet, I never could have done it without you! Thanks for all your wise insights (ex. the space program) and for your bold look on life. Katie - thanks for being my French and Spanish buddy, especially when we "studied" this summer. Alvin - thanks for letting me name you l'homme nois, for G.I. Joe, for the bread at your house. Regan - thanks for pretending you're bad at Ceramics to make me feel better. I'm glad we got to be better friends this year, now we'll stay in touch. Bobby - for recording Chamber songs on Karaoke with me, and to all the Duttons for letting me live at your house all these years. To Caroline - supporting my career as a famous backup singer, to Laura for being such a lovable freak, Liz for the many hours at the Gap together, to Joanna T. for our strange friendship! And, of course, to all the Pemi Girls. To all the f-h girls: I love you guys, remember storming around at camp with the NKOTB, thanks for some of the best times of my life. To the Knights, to Joe, Danny and Donny, thanks for always hangin' tough. To the sophomore girls: Carrie, Krissy, Nicole, and Liz - thanks for always keeping me laughing. To Madrigal, to Meg and Mer for our many musical antics: "why not...", to JoJo for pointing out the atrocities of math. Thanks to Coach Wood, Mrs. Rainis, and, of course, the lunch ladies for giving me something to look forward to every day. To Chris for taking me to Burger King when Jesse was too sick to go out, and to all the Ryans for always making me feel at home. To Jesse for countless emails and long-distance phone calls - there will be many more to come, I'm sure. Thank you for knowing what's best for me when I don't and for teaching me so much about myself. I love you with all my heart. Future Goals: To grow up, become rich, and let Tom live off my money.

Liz Brutti

Mom and dad-thank you for all of your support and encouragement. I don't know where I would be without the two of you. Most of all, thanks for putting up with me day after day and never giving up. I know that hasn't been easy! I love you both very much. Larry-thanks for not only being my brother, but for being my best friend too. Thanks for always making me look like the bad one, but for always being on my side and sticking up for me when I needed you. I'm gonna miss you. Ben-thanks for being the cutest little buddy ever and for letting me squish you all the time. Rachel-thanks for being my best friend in 3rd and 4th grade and then deciding to hate me for no reason. I'm glad it all worked out in the end! Thanks for dmb, brownies, girls nights, sleepovers, Jake, John, Jasby, Vidal, Adam, Alex, having the same crazy ex-boyfriend problems, listening to all of my pathetic stories, crying for no reason, physics, shopping, Andrews station, holding it for 15 hours, realizing the truth about this school, being in a bad mood almost as much as I am, knowing how to have fun, being the smartest girl ever, being anti-social, dancing, being my first :, Lexington, skinny dipping, being trashy, being yourself, being cute, and for Ani. Thanks for being one of the only people who truly understands me, for being both crazy and sweet at the same time, and for always being around whenever I need someone. I love you! Kara-thank you for everything! I'm gonna forget almost everything, but you know the rest! Thanks for being a band geek, crazy boy problems, wedgewood, the "library" in 7th grade, Hampton beach, Spanish videos, cramming for every exam with me, sleepovers, nerds and smartfood, miles 1-20, Starbucks, singing in my car, tanning, bumbling fools, our books, Cape Cod, appreciating my mad driving skills, Hampton beach, trying to be better than me at swimming and diving...but never succeeding, finding the weirdest guys, "research" every day after school, and everything else that you can ever imagine. Thanks for being there through everything with me and for always being a true friend. You're the best. I hope we always stay close. I love you too! Ben-thanks for always listening to my stupid stories and problems and for all of the hugs. Thanks for Spanish videos, rollerblading, getting kicked out of my house, letting me bleach your hair, helping me take my mind off of things, and for the fam. Matteo-thanks for talking until 2 in the morning, Jerry McGuire, walking to school, and being the best neighbor. Jeb-for trees in England, Vanilla trees, talking on the phone with me all the time freshman year, writing me notes in JJ's class, Beattown, the worst fourth of July ever, and just being a dork. Spanky ds-thanks for all of the hugs baby. And sorry about the hiccups!!! I love you! Stay sweet. Sabella-for the semi and walking to school. Tom-for being property of the gap, going to a million dance recitals with me, and just being a great guy and an awesome band geek. Gwen-for being a spazz, Cape Cod, and the sleepovers. Carolinek-for forth of July, Cape Cod, almost getting into a fight, and dmb. Molly-for being my cheering friend, crazy boy problems, and listening to me cry. Jasby-for teaching me so much about life and about myself. Sarahw-for our night out at the food court, listening to all of my crazy stories and trying to outdo me, Yanksee river, Starbucks boys, and just being cute. Ashley-thanks for always being there for me, giving me good advice, and for our counseling sessions. I love you! Thanks to everyone else at work for spending way too much time with me and not killing me! especially Meghan, Megan, Beth, Elena, Homa, Krissy, Jenni, Sam, Judie, Missy, Melinda, and Kirsta. And to everyone else who contributed to the high school deal: Matt, Torrey, Katieb, Alison, Mer, Nickd, Kelly, Emily, Robin, Meg, Kelley, Rashmi, Kacie, Carolinel, Susan, Jojom, Corey, Nash, Markk, Laura, Laurag, Lesa, Drew, Rashba, Bethany, Steph, Erin, Heather, Tater, Joannat, and Alvin. Golf - 2,3,4 Hockey - 1,2,3,4 Lacrosse - 2,3,4 High School has been the best time of my life. There are many people and memories that I have to remember. For starters I want to remember the seniors who got me ready for hockey and helped me when it was necessary. The four seasons of hockey was what I really looked forward to each year. Coach Bevins is the one I have to thank for that and the one that I have to thank if I play in college. I want to thank the Sonic Ranger for all of the time he gave me to sleep after those early hockey practices and also when I was awake for the great arguments. To Jon and Rebecca who made the physics class slightly bearable through the monotonous speeches. Thanks for the nickname, NED!!!!!! Jeb and Drew, because now it is impossible for me to walk down the hall without hearing it coming from somewhere. To the original flunk crew in Mrs. Keefe's class sophomore year: Jeb, Mark, Dave and Pat. Friends are the most important things and that's where the memories come from. Thanx to Dave and Mark for captaining the hockey team with me this year. To Dan, Jon, Mark and Spanky D for showing me how Stop and Shop can be so much fun. To Dan, "don't drop the WISK". To Jon, all of the little comments we made in SAT class. Thanks to my parents because there is no way that I could have got through High School

Jen Conroy

First I have to thank God for giving me my life, friends and family. I would also like to thank my family for raising me in this crazy world. Thankyou Crystal back in Illinois for being the best friend a gal could ever have! A big thanks out to Pamela Worth for putting up with my (beautiful) singing and for all the crazy yearbook dancing fun. Thanks to Rachel for all the rides talks and fun. Thanks to Andy for being incredibly adorable, making me incredibly happy, and all the help in Calculus. Thanks to Jen 1 for being the muscle woman that she is, and for the ice cream. Thanks to Jen 2 for being my support in being the new girl. And to both Jens for the Jen hugs and the Jen nights. Thanks to Marianne for thanking me. Thanks to Stefan for making me laugh. Oh, and watch out for those scissors! Thanks to Alyssa for scaring me every day, and to Trevor for all the "Trevor Hugs." Thank you Andy, Jesse and Adam for the raincoat. Thank you Mr. R. for being so nice! Thanks to everyone that I haven't thanked yet, I love you all. Smile!

Activities: Drama Club 9-12, Crew for Spring Musical 9-12, Telemedia Club 10-12, Marching Band 12, Golf 9-11, Winter Track 9, Rifle 10-12, Spring Track 9-12, National Honor Society 11-12. Future Goals: To pursue a degree in electrical engineering, and later work at a computer systems company. To find satisfaction and happiness in life. Thanks Foremost, I would like to thank God for the life that I have been given and all that I have been allowed to achieve. Secondly, I want to thank my parents for all that they have ever done for me. They found my limit, and then pushed me past it by just a little bit. I would like to thank all my teachers for the encouragement that they have given me in allowing me to achieve for my goals. My thanks go out to Ken Lord in particular, who helped to start me on the right track in computers, even if he does use a Mac. Thanks to all my friends, whom I will not name, but you know who you are. My life just wouldn't be the same without you, and I will never forget you. And if you even have a question, yes, you probably are my friend. I would also like to thank Brian Deardorff, who finally got me that job at TIAC, and was a true friend. Speaking of true friends, I would especially like to thank Elissa Dill, who was always there for me, even when I "pushed" her around. Thank you Elissa, I don't know what I'd ever do without you. One final thing Elissa: remember that things will always get better because I promised they would! And in conclusion, yes Lilian, my car IS supposed to do that!

Football:1,2. Lacrosse:1,2,4. Basketball:1. I would like to thank my whole family for their effort to raise me right and their commitment to make me do my best. I love you all: Eddy, Ana, Carolina, Seba, Sabrina, Scooter, and the rest of you. Angela ("Mamasita")-You're one of the best things that's happened to me. No matter what happens my love will always be there for you. Robbie(Roobs)-you're the first kid I met in this town, I can't mention all the crazy things we said we wouldn't do; and did. Mustang death rides, crashes, dirtbikes, special crusses etc. Dave-Don't ever change. We've stayed up a couple nights while everyone else was sheets. New Years in the barn, New Hampshire, small parties at your house etc. Pat(White Zombie)-you are a strange kid, and I still wonder how you do it. Crazy times with the Grafixx and the corrola etc. Dan S.(Dohny). Pete L.(Pedro). Brian S.(Stem)-How's your B.M.W? Jeff D.(Old). Mike S.(Scoeflaks). Bobby M., Adam O., Jimmy F., Harry M., Paul L., Dan R.(Mayan), Little Birren., Greg T., Carl W. (Allison L., Jackie F., Sara T., Rachel N., Jessica L.) You girls are mint to have around. Also the rest of the class of #98, you guys are Fun! For everybody that I mentioned and everyone I have forgotten: Because of you guys I've had the best #of years of partying, trouble, laughs, etc. that any kid could have. I won't forget it...

The people that helped me the most were my family. Mom, I love you and you mean so much to me. When you moved out I really missed always seeing you everyday. You've always had the ability to make me feel better about myself. Dad, I love you and without you I don't know what I would have done. You have always been willing to do anything, under any circumstances for Nick and I. Thanks for always supporting me at every game and always taking me to the hospital. Nick, ever since you stopped beating me up you've been the best brother. You've always been there for me and for that I love you. Brandi, I miss you and love you more than anything. The day you died a part of me died too. I'd do anything to get you back. I'll never forget you. Through my years in Bedford I have made many great friends. Steff, always make me smile and I love being with you. Corey, always got my back. Brent, working together and our thousands of jokes. Kacie, friend since preschool and neighbor. Adam, I used to be a good kid. Chea, making me watch Chris eat. Chris, eating funny. Mer, eighth grade semi. Lesa, my cheerleader and always flirting. Jaci, punching me in the face. Katelyn, beating me up. Pete, fellow math nerd. Mark and Nick, fellow lax captains. Suey, that was a great party. Molly, jacuzzi party. Heather, Hampton Beach. Ryan, we're soft at the corners. Danielle, your a great friend, you were always there for me, and had great advice. Thanks to Ben, Catherine, Steve, Kelly, Mark, Matteo, Bree, Vin, Laura, Danny, Drew, Jeff, Erin, Sully, Alvin, Brian, and Curt for all the good laughs and great times we've shared. I also want to thank the football coaches for making me work so hard and making me a stronger person. Thanks to coach Snow and Edwards for making me a better lacrosse player. Thanks to Mr. Rashba for teaching me how to play basketball and coach Fusco for ending my basketball career. Pete thanks for helping me through all my injuries. Thank you to all my teachers who have filled me with knowledge. In conclusion thanks to everyone who has helped me at one point in my life.

Future Goals: Go to Penn State where I will study computer science. After that, I will get a job working on computers, and after that, who knows?
I would like to start off by thanking God for everything He has done for me over the course of my life. Be it my brains, my abilities, my good qualities, or anything else that helps to make me the person that I am, I owe it all to Him. Next, I would like to thank my family for all their support over the years. I could never have made it this far without their help and their pushing me along. Of all the people I know, I would like to thank those who have helped make my last two years of high school truly the best years of my life. I'm not going to thank you all individually (for fear of accidentally leaving someone out) but if you deserve my thanks, you are included in this giant thank you. You know who you are. To all of you, I wish you good luck in life and in everything you do. Have a long and happy existence, and I hope to see many of you again sometime in the future. Thank you all for everything.

First I'd like to start off with my family. Mom and Dad, you're great, you've been there for me from the start and you've never let me down. You're the best parents that anyone could ever have, thanks for putting up with me for 18 years, and I love you so much. Mom, all of our walks to Rich's when I was little (joggin', joggin'), and all of our other bonding experiences. Dad, you're the funniest guy I know, thanks for teaching me everything I know and not only being a great father, but a great friend. Thankyou for taking me to far off ice rinks so I could get in some extra skating practice. (Oh yeah, mom and dad, thanks for tying my skates at all of those 7 a.m. Saturday morning hockey games at Hayden. Kerry, you're the only person I know who's as crazy and outgoing as me, you're a riot and I hope you don't change, you have always been my best friend and you always will be. I love sharing our funny stories together and I know that we'll always have'em, and I love you very much. Auntie Donna, I just want to say thankyou for always being so good to me, especially when you're house on Genetti St. was my second home. You're a really nice person and I hope you stay that way. Uncle Glenn, what can I say, I'd never want anyone else as my godfather. You're the coolest guy ever, (I mean, yeah your reffing could use a little work, but hey, who's complaining!) Thankyou for the Bruin's games and that one time that I met all of the Bruins at the Garden, I'll never forget. To all my other Aunts and Uncles, I just want to say thankyou too, but I only have 1000 words, so I have to make the most of them, but you know how much I love all of you. Nana, you're a "hip old granny" and you always make me food, sorry, I mean you always make me laugh. I love you a lot, and oh yeah, sorry about putting the dog leash on the cat and lying about it, and throwing the nutshells in the cookie mix. Papa, "you need me on that wall," he says, "you want me on that wall," he says, thanks for everything and keeping me on the right track. Nana Duncan and Grandpa, I miss you both a lot and I will always remember our sleepovers. When me and Kerry would play maid. Nana and Kerry out in the living room watching Golden Girls, eating cheese curls, while me and Grandpa were watching the hockey games in his room, (oh yeah, Grandpa, thanks for letting me stay up as late as I wanted to finish the whole hockey game.) Scotty, well hey, we had lots of fun and caused a lot of mischief, we've been friends since I can remember, I can't begin to write everything that we've done together, and would probably get arrested if I did, but anyways, I hope that you keep in touch, and good luck in college. Now, for the rest: Angelo, you're the funniest kid, we can always make each other laugh and we don't even have to say anything. We've been friends since I can remember and I know that we always will be, "Excuse me Flo!", B.J.'s cups, Bagels with an excessive amount of cream cheese. (that they do for you!) all of our jobs together, and whatever is next for us. (and let's not forget about you waking up with that girls shirt on!) Wow, we've had so much fun together and college has yet to come! Peter, what can I say, you're one of my best friends. You're not only my friend, but my conscience, I don't know where I'd be, or what trouble I'd be in if it wasn't for you, I'm sure that we'll always be friends and the plan is still on: go to college, work hard, go into business together, get rich, get girls, and have fun! Thankyou so much Pete, I really appreciate everything you've ever done for me. Curt and Corey, you guys are awesome and I know that you'll always be up for having fun with me, so thanks, and Curt, Wu-Tang was unreal and my bruises have finally healed, so I'm ready for more. College will be great and I hope that our group of friends will always stick together, because you guys mean everything to me. (Oh yeah, Jamie, you scare me, but I love ya anyways, so stay cool!) I'd also like to say thank you to my girls: Kacie, Erin, Meg, and every other one who I annoyed throughout my youth. Kacie, thank you for being a good friend my whole life. It seems like just yesterday, that we were in Mr. Fichera's class together. All of our Latin jokes, especially "Blown Away!", and all the other fun times that we've had, and there's still more to come. Erin, thanks for being one of the nicest girls I've ever met, and watch out for that capillary action! Thanks to both of you, for liking the same stuff as me, like: Adam Sandler, Dumb & Dumber, Hockey, and everything else. Thanks girls, stay close! I'd also like to say thanks to Richard, Justin, Kyle (Gail), and Andy, you're the funniest kids I've ever met, and I hope that we'll always stay friends, we've had so many good times and I'll never forget them, and thanks for giving me one of the best summers I've ever had. Kyle, you and your silly antics!, you're one of the nicest kids that I've ever met, and don't ever change. To Dave Vincent, I just want to say thanks for being such a great friend to me all of these years, and to the rest of the Vincents, thanks for everything and always making me feel welcome in your home. If I missed anyone, then I'm sorry, and thank you too!

Activities: many things 1,2,3,4.

Thanks to: The fam! You guys are the best... Mom & Dad, thanks for letting me be myself and supporting me in everything I do. I couldn't have made it this far without you... I love you. Bob-dog: remember the waterskiing dog, the Nutty Professor ('scuze me!), and Spacehog... to name a few. Skippy: thanks for ruling in taekwondo, and for being so annoying yet funny... see you on Planet Jordan! My baby kittens, especially Large: you are beautiful and I love you. The Thurks: Auntie Martha, Uncle Mike, Andrea & Michael: you are just about my favorite people in the world. Never forget Mexico or any of our other adventures... more to come! My girls- Alison, Heather & Bethany: there is no one I would have rather spent the past 4 years with. What can I say? You are my best friends in the world and I'll love you forever... keep on sweatin' to the Oldies! Bethany (Patient): remember taekwondo, Lord of the Flies, being an escapee, "math test, oh no", the Blue Crew!! You know who will win when Derek Jeter & Nomar Garciaparra have it out. Thanks for loving baseball, and for being so funny. Heather: I may be too mini to look you in the eye, but we've still had some excellent times. We've never failed to find something to laugh at. You can call me Al! Thanks for always looking on the bright side, being in my gym, staying so loyal, and noticing Darth Vader's helmet! Get some exercise, it's necessary! Al-dog: I don't know where to start. But you are the best, Noblest friend I could ever ask for. I'll just mention the guy in Essex, and that really funny bear... thanks for being there to set me straight, for being honest with me when I need it most, and for making fun of the 2-dimensional goose. I love you so much, and that will never change no matter what. Kathryn B: you're the best goalie. Thanks for always being so cute & having a sense of humor. Vinnie (003): you RULE! Remember physics (that's where we had some of our best conversations), baseball (I'll always be the #1 fan), and of course the Blue Crew: parking lots, the Latin Rhythm Crew (they'll be famous some day and you'll want the autograph back!), 90210, junior prom, Chadwick's, "It's not like it's called a moheater!" Sorry about eating your lunch every day. You're a great friend, I know we'll keep in touch. Say hi to Nomar for me when you hit the major leagues. Kara V: ever since my mom melted your snowpants in kindergarten, I knew we'd be seeing a lot of each other. We've definitely had issues, but we made it! I love you. All the V's: remember Sunday River (Bim's Whim!), Essex (Skippy's flip in the tube), and Balderdash. Line (can I call you Heat?): grilled cheese, taekwondo, Neil D, Bev Hills (what's the name of that other show?)... I admire you so much. Keep running, and keep jammin'! Tom (Bert): we didn't have any classes together this year, but I still love you! Love you, still, I do! L'homme Chinois: YO JOE! Thanks for stealing Doritos from my house. You are my favorite l'homme chinois... Team Short! Kacie: baseball, the junior prom, planting a garden! Susan: the scary lights guy! Joanna M: thanks for always being in a silly mood with me, taking things to the next level, and putting up with all kinds of janx. Continue to obey the Oracle of Thoth, and smile even if it means showing the braces. My field hockey girls: Hang Tough! Meg, Mer, Al, Heather, Steph, Kara, Krista, Robin: remember camp, Cover Girl, and all the great times. All the New Kids: you are my inspiration. The others- you're the best! Keep up the traditions and don't ever lose your spirit. Carrie: my little sister... thanks for always laughing with me, and for being my best younger friend. Liz: you are the best! Thanks for spilling Coke in my car (I think it's still there), le mouton, and always being funny. Krissy: you may appear small, but only next to that Concord girl! Catherine: you are the sweetest girl... keep smiling and be proud of #5. I'm going to miss you guys so much. Don't forget me, I love you. Jeff (Jean-Jan): thanks for living at my house, teaching me the Carlton, making weird videos with Bobby, and being such a sweetheart. Gaston: remember Ceramics (we have skills) and gym (again, we have skills). Tricia: thanks for the years of taekwondo, I'll miss you... beat up Nicole Latta for me. Johnny Whallon and Jesse Ratichek: thanks for being the cutest, nicest freshmen- and excellent soccer players too. Have fun! The 90210 crew- Katie, Matt, Bethany, Vinnie, Ben, Caroline: what would my Wednesday nights be without you... and Donna Martin? You guys are true fans, and you never fail to deliver the Power Bomb when necessary. Ben: thanks for putting up with me living at your house, having so many girls (and letting me make fun of you for it), playing Nintendo, teaching me to dance like a psycho, and opening my mind to things like Korn and Tool. Nobody else has ever made me more mad or laugh harder... you are a truly unique, wonderful person. Matt: you have changed my life in the past few years. Remember Red Sox games, open-door conversations, Jeopardy, and the Blue Crew... gymnastics (Dominique), B. Adams, and Bev Hills... the Nutcracker, Leann Rimes, going to Essex, the "current status." Thanks for being so cool about all my crushes, loving me the way I am, and being the sweetest person I've ever met. I think you know how much you mean to me. I love you millions.

Future Goals: To always appreciate the funny things in life, to marry Nomar Garciaparra and watch the Red Sox win the World Series, to be happy.

Future Goals: To make a good living without devoting the prime of my life to schooling and paying off debts. THANKS: I'd first like to thank my family. Thanks to my parents for helping make me the person I am today. You somehow managed to give me enough guidance and support and still leave me alone so I can be as independent as I want to be. Thank you Dad for making me think things out fully and for making me use my head to solve most of my problems. You teaching me this will help me for the rest of my life and I can always count on myself now for getting through whatever may arise. Thanks for always reminding me of what is really important in life and for making me appreciate what's good in my life. Thanks Mom for taking such good care of me and being so kind and loving even when I haven't deserved it. I do notice all the little things you do for me and how much you really take care of me. I don't know how I'll make it in college without anyone to take care of me and I'll miss you so much. Thanks Mom and Dad. Thanks Matt for being the ideal kind of older brother. You always kept an eye out to keep me out of major trouble but at the same time gave me plenty of space to do for myself. You've been so helpful with things I'm starting to go through and I give you a lot of credit for doing it first. I look up to you and you're one of my only role models. Thanks Mikey for being my little brother. Maybe I should've been the last child because I sure don't think I'm a very good older brother. You're always there to help me when I need it and I'm always going to be there for you. Never hesitate to ask for my help. You're my brother and I'd do anything for you. I think you're one of the nicest kids I now and I hope you never change. Thanks to Robbie. Robbie I'm glad we became friends. I didn't really know you that well before high school but I'm glad I do now. I've sometimes wished I could have your life. I wish I didn't have to work so hard in school. I've always envied that you didn't. I know you're a real smart kid and you could definitely be a geek like me if you wanted. I love the fact that you don't want to though. I wish you the best success in life and I hope you're richer than all those kids who spent so much time on school work because they thought it was the only way. Thanks for proving them all wrong. (DON'T make me eat those words now) Thanks to Dave for all you've done for me. You always help me when I need your advice. You understand the way I have to do things and the way my life is and your advice is always very helpful. I can always trust you with a secret and I never question your loyalty as a friend. I know you're going to find something you're good at and make a huge success out of it. Finally, thanks to Nick. You're definitely one of the most interesting people I've ever met. I first just thought you were kind of weird, (sorry), but I realized there was a reason for all your thoughts and actions. You're a very unique person and I like you all the better because of it. We have a weird understanding of each other. Thanks for all the laughs. Next, thanks to Katie. Who knows where we'll be when the yearbooks come out and we're reading this again. It is amazing we've gone out for as long as we have. Maybe opposites do attract. It's always nice to know you're there for me and your smiling face can sometimes make everything better. I know I don't often tell you all the things I feel about you but I love you. Thanks Pedro for being a friend I never thought I'd have. I can never stay that mad at you about stuff and you're one of the funniest kids I know. Thanks to Dan for always being cool to me (almost always) and being generous with your fun. Thanks to Schoff for making fun of me. Even I think it's funny sometimes and I deserve it. Thanks to Jeff for never getting on my nerves or bothering me. You're always cool to hang out with. Thanks to Carl for being a mooch. Just kidding. We partied at the Allman Brothers. I'll never forget it. Thanks to Brian for coming up with so many weird words and for being so generous, mueves. Thanks to Greg for being a freshmen and being just about as big as me. Thanks to Danny R. for singing the Lo La song with me. Thanks to Anurag for all those times we hung out. Cross country wasn't quite the same when you were gone. Thanks to Frankie for being the biggest little man I ever met and for always making me laugh. Thanks to Curt and Danny for all the fun we had in middle school and camping. Thanks to Bobby Marrigan for showing up just when I'm looking for you and for all the fun we had. Thanks to Jaci for being a cool sister in law. You're always fun to hang out with and it's not over yet. Thanks to Robin, Katelyn, Kristin, Krista, Bree for those times we hung out at Katelyn's house. Thanks to Molly for being my on-again off-again close friend through all our years of school. I hope we don't lose touch. Thanks to Angela for being a cool person I became friends with. Thanks to all Matt's friends and the class of '95 for making my freshmen year awesome. Thanks to Donny for being a cool boss. And thanks to anyone I forgot.

Emily Gleason

ACTIVITIES: soccer, track, Spanish club, and some other stuff.

Thanks to my parents for "teaching me how to fish" & for the support you have given me— especially with soccer.

 BOO: You have been a pain, but we've had some fun. Play tough in soccer & w/stuff in general. I love Bubba too, just like you, Jessie, & Nikki. KRISTEN M. & CHRIS F.: thanks for the help & time you have given to me. CHRIS: thanks for the pizza & BOO bucket. To the SOCCER TEAM: thanks for a lot of memories, so many of us have played together for so long. It's been fun. F&F! JESSIE/ Pipes: Thanks for always drilling me with the ball at practice. You're an awesome Paddy-sitter. NIKKI: UNC rules! I'm going to miss you playing during ceramics class. You & J.P. should keep practicing your "routine" for Star Search. JO T.: Thanks for always making me play left side. RASHMI: Thanks for letting me ramble, for CVS fun, & the time we almost died in the Mitre parking lot. BETHANY: my bus buddy. Thanks for always clueing me in, for making me go to the Jr. Prom, for our UNC twin plan, for Betucci's and Chicken Gemelli. KATIE B.: "It's not whether you win or lose, but how many tricks you pull." CARRIE: Why do we say together? Thanks for staying w/me in track. You're the best high jumper/coach ever! ELENA: thanks for driving me everywhere, for Fam-nights, Daiquiris, McD runs, Nantucket, movie rentals, (I don't have a card, but I have a phone number!) everything. Thanks for being there. JO-JO: the most original person I know. Thanks for making me laugh, for a ride when E.V. couldn't, being Co-Sec, & the "B-team". KIM: thanks for all the fun breaks watching Apollo13 at CVS. Long runs & snow fights during track were fun too. WEBSTER & SABELLA Fams: thanks for my childhood memories (David, Sara, & Anna: Bonfires on the beach). NICK: thanks for acting like the brother I never had & beating on me. TOM: thanks for being there so it wasn't just me & Nick, & for going along w/my crazy ideas at 11 p.m. HEATHER, MATT, ALVIN: thanks for Jr. yr. ceramics. The wing rules! Also, MATT: volleyball in gym. ALVIN: physics class. HEATHER: for pushing me to go to the Jr. prom, working out w/Cindy, & being a supermodel. DANNY R.: thanks for making sure I never left History w/out a bruise. BETH: ("fave fresh") for making track fun with your latest "interest," the snow fights, & the H2O fights. ROBIN: for being one of my oldest friends, for listening & giving good advice, for being a dance nut like me, & for Plymouth. CAROLINE: for being the nicest girl, for wanting to go to the Garment District, for our Int'l dances, & for Plymouth w/Robin. KARA: for being a spaz, but also being there for me (Let's run thru a field naked). JON T.: Chem, Spanish, & Eng. (East Egg team. . .). COREY: for gym class, visiting me at work, trying to teach me b-ball (you still owe me that bet), for your "Corey Stories," for stalking me and Bethany, and for listening. DEBBIE: for our talks & understanding about A., emotionally unstable guys, rides to school, for being unique, for a lot of memories ("my ring, my ring"), camping, Hawaii, track, being fun & for all the laughter. Thank-you to anyone I forgot, it wasn't intentional. FUTURE GOALS: to do something with my life and be happy.

Christopher Hevey

Activities: Football 11,12-Lacrosse 11,12-Hot Tub 12 I would like to begin my senior thanks by first thanking God and my savior Jesus Christ. Everything I've accomplished and everything I will accomplish is possible only through the lord. After God comes family and I owe my family everything. Thank you, Mom and Dad for never giving up on me and basically making who I am. Thank you, Caitlin for being a brat and always making me look good. I wouldn't trade you for the world. Thank you Aunt Cathy and Uncle Reis for giving me three little cousins I adore and for your constant interest in what's going on in my life. Thank you, Memere and Pepere for my most ondest childhood memories: Christmas, trips to Maine and even more that words can't begin to explain. I wish I could thank more but space does not permit so a final thank you to all of my relatives that have given me a kind thought. I would now like to thank Coach Sab, Coach Petrillo and Coach Sullivan. Never in my life will I forget ny time spent with you all. You have no idea how much I've grown and learned while in your presence. You guys are CHAMPIONS. THANK YOU. I'd also like to thank Mrs. Messmer and Mr. Maxwell for being the coolest teachers in Bedford. Next I'd like to thank the people that make high school what it is-a state of confusion-MY FRIENDS. Let me start with my boys from 98. To Jeff Tossi, your a somewhat weird kid but so am I so it's cool. Thanks for paint ball, stealing P-benches, car chases, ringing girls, doing that funky break dancing move and or drives to Billerica. Thanks, pal. To Steve Hludzick, my fellow hick, us base boys rule this school, sucka. Thanks for the rides to town, permanent hearing damage, sing-alongs, puking during football games and off docks in N.H and for being my partner in the challenge of Bedford. See you in Chattahoochee. Adam, I remember last year thinking how cool it would be to hang with you and the rest of the boys. I couldn't have been more right. Thanks for getting all the girls (What are you talking about), being the creme that rises to the top, taking helmets in the back, exposing my fluff, always taking sides with me, and for informing me about the end of the world. Your the best, thanks. To Dan McGrath, he of the many parties. Thanks for the basement and the couch within it, the barbecue, the 2 week old sandwich, the muffins and hungry man dinners, New Hampshire, flaming candles and being as easy going as I am. I look forward to future episodes, thanks Dan. To Mike Sullivan, my fellow captain and paint ball sniper. Thanks for being a nasty linebacker, emphasizing words such as rat, yelling at your dad and letting me smoke you in paint ball, SUCKA. To Brian Waldron for being a punk except when Michelle's around, breaking away from football bondage, Jon Desmond and for actually cheering for me at a football game. To Chea "the Korean" Kenyon, thanks for Tower Records, taking me to the movies and Madden at your house. I wish both you and Jessica the best. And Chea, you are trouble. To Vincent McGrath, thanks for going to all those football visits with me and being one bad mamma-jamma of a quarterback. Good luck in Collegiate Football and if I happen to play against your team in college, well, just pray that doesn't happen for your sake Vinnie, ha ha ha ha. Thanks to Angelo Delfino, Ryan Friend, Nolan and the rest of the football crew for making this year special. Thanks to Bobby M. for being a bad influence but always providing amusement and Andy G. for always driving. To the girls of 98, Joanna T., Laura O., and Stephanie(thanks for Angelo's Brownies) thanks for always being nice to me and winning at powder puff football. To John Duke, Jack and Harry and the rest of '99 thanks for being the coolest juniors. To Kristin T. and Jessica G. for always looking good in History and putting up with my A.D.D, thanks. To the Girls of 99, Mary Ann, Katie S. and Melanie thanks for hanging out on the weekends, it was a blast. To Rebecca M., I hope things went great for you this year, sorry about the Nikki incident but I really did mean well. Thanks for being someone I can talk to. To Justin Kessler, for being the hardest working kid I know and for all training we did junior year and for some pretty PHAT concerts, thanks, that was time well spent. Thanks to my people from C.H.S especially the Kerns, I will never forget you and although you'll probably never read this I miss you all, thanks. In conclusion, I hope I didn't forget anybody and I'm sorry if I did. Finally my goals for the future are to someday go back to Ohio, start a family, own a pig and coach high school football while teaching. SEE YA

Steve Hludzick

Activities: Football 10,11,12; Hockey 11,12; Dan's Basement 12 First of all I want to thank God, because without him nothing I have ever accomplished would have been possible. Mom and Dad thanks for all the support and love you've given me through the years. To my brother Mike, thanks for always looking out for me and keeping me out of trouble. You've always been there for me when I needed you. To all of the rest of my family thanks for your love and support. To my Korean, Chea, you were my first friend here and even though you're nothing but trouble you'll always be my dog. You're gonna get us in a huge fight one day, but you know I'll have your back. Just be sure to invite me to your and Jess's wedding. Thanks for always making me hungry in the morning. And thanks for all of that extra entertainment on those summer nights. Jeff, you were my first Bedford friend. When I first met you I thought that you were kind of weird, but now that I know you, I realize how much of an understatement that actually was. But thanks for bringing me out and helping me fit into Bedford life. (Life is but a dream, dream, dream.) You are the class clown hands down too. To the Pimp Daddy Adam Bleser, thanks for taking up all the girls at all of our parties. I'll see you May 4, 2000 and we're going to party like there's no tomorrow, cause there isn't going to be one. Brian, I hope that one day you get to visit the motherland. Thanks for always being a punk. Dan thanks for not making me pay rent over the summer. You have to start wearing that Trucker Buddy hat more, just stay away from me when you do, you go from Dr. Dan to Mr. Hyde. For example: "This one's for drinkin' and this one's for later, which one do you want?" , "They didn't say, Hi, they said, nice @$$." But even though your a spaz, your still my homie. Sully you're my b*t%h in paintball. Thanks for making those huge bonfires on those cold nights. Bobby, thanks for being afraid of killer bees. Ben thanks for keeping me up to date with all of the happenings in every other town (especially Concord). Now Hevey, what can I say about my fellow Hanscom hick. Thanks for giving me someone to watch. Whether you're trying to get that last drop of juice out of the bottle, singing, staring, eating, making a comment, walking, running, or just sitting there you've always made me laugh. Thanks for making those trips down to Billerica and giving me someone to roll to town with. Vin thanks for always putting my attention to the worst place in Spanish class. Angelo thanks for our in depth conversations and songs at football practice. To Corey, Jamie, and Curt, for beating up Rob. To Duke, Harry, and Ryan for being the coolest Jr's. To Joanna for sucking on wet towels and always bugging me to drive my Jeep. Kristin, it's coming back around again. Jessica thanks for all the stories. Katie thanks for all the answers in Physics(even though I get better test grades than you). Melanie, thanks for always moving your eyebrows when you talk. To Andy, thanks for always taking our jokes without snapping on us. That goes for Nolan too. To Ames, Jarrod, Pratt, Kyle, Chris, Shane, Calvin, Troy, Natasha, and all of my other friends from Idaho; I hope we always stay close and never forget the times we had. Mr. Maxwell and Mr. Palmer thanks for being the best teachers. To Coach Sabourin, Coach Sullivan, and especially Coach Petrillo and Coach Srholec thanks for everything you taught me about football and about life. To Pete for keeping me healthy all season. To everyone on the football and hockey teams thanks for all the good times and the bad. To anyone I forgot, either I'm sorry or I'm sure there's a reason. But I'm sure you know how I feel about you, whether it be good or bad. Future Goals: To be rich and never have to work

Katri Huikari

First of all I would like to thank my parents and my other family in Finland. You gave me an opportunity to be an exchange student and you have supported me emotionally as economically. Without you I could not have had this year here. Thanks to my friends in Finland, too. Secondly I would like to thank all three of my host families. Without you I could not have had made it through this year. I really do not know how to thank you enough! Thirdly I would like to thank everyone else that I dealt with during my senior year here. Without you I would have gone back to Finland earlier! I had great time with you. This was a very special year for me. I am not going to forget you. I am gonna miss you all! Hopefully I can come back some day to see you.

Rachel Johnson

Activities: French Club-1,2,4; Girls State-3; National Honor Society-3,4; Prom Committee-3,4; Yearbook Business Editor-3; Yearbook Co-Editor-in-Chief-4; Forum-4 First I must thank the most important people in my life: my family. Mom and Dad, you guys have helped me through so much. You know how much I love you, and I could not possibly write all of the things I have to thank you for in this small amount of space. Most importantly, thank you for always supporting me, and for always giving me the push I needed to finish the job. Melissa and Lindsey, I love you both very much. Melissa-I know you'll always be able to beat me up, and Lindsey-you'll always come to my rescue (or at least try to)! You guys are the best little sisters anyone could ever have. Next, I have to thank the person who gave me the challenging yet awesome responsibility of helping to put this yearbook together: Pam. You have always been able to make me laugh, and to think about things in a different light. Thank you for listening to me ramble on about the guys in my life (or lack of), and for sharing your stories with me. Oh, and I really didn't mean to hit you on the head in the car! I will never forget you. And remember-the answer is always two! Kelley J.-Jelley Kones, my lunch buddy of three years. I'm so glad I got to know you. I always loved hearing your Friendly's stories-well, there was one I really wish I hadn't heard. I think you have the record for having the most near-death experiences ever with your car (Don't worry-I'm not far behind you). Lori, even though you're not here right now, I have to thank you for all the awesome times we had together-and the boring ones too. Remember the road construction cones? Amanda thought we had been kidnapped! Seika at the football game eating popcorn-and drooling in the car. Waiting for 40 minutes at Chile's to be served, then asking the waitress if we could have it to go (sorry). The mall- "I'm wiggling!" The base movie theater-they wouldn't still be in business if it weren't for us. Snowboarding-not being able to walk the next day! Getting home from Boston three hours late-whoops! We have some great memories, and I hope we'll always stay in touch. Jen Conroy-you are the craziest person I know. I'm so glad I got to know you this year. You're the only person who understands that the smoke from my car is normal! Coffee is the best! Dancin' to the oldies-Pretending that we were secret agents out on a mission to find...milk! You're a great person, and I know we will always be friends. Emily and Lesa-we survived that class! Hey, it wasn't all that bad. Elena-you gotta watch those doors babe! Caroline K., Bethany-thank God we got out of there in time! You know what I'm talking about. The Peer Leadership gang-you guys are awesome. This year was a lot of fun...I'll remember all of you. Sarah Toole-layout master-you were really fun to work with this year-despite the fact that you made me "specify" that I (you) wanted a Barbie instead of a Hot Wheels! Laura G.-sorry we were talking about your little bathroom experience when we thought you weren't listening. You know we love ya! Good luck next year, and thanks for all your help. Seth P.-you're a great guy. You were a huge help this year-you really made Yearbook fun. Dina, Pranitan, Shauna, Ben and Pat, the Brat Pack (Dan, Blake and Brian), Kristen Kremer, Caroline Leary, Kelley Jones and everyone else who worked on Yearbook this year-you guys did an awesome job, and your work was greatly appreciated. Thank you all so much. Mr. Rinaldi-thank you for putting up with us when we seemed to be losing our heads. We couldn't have done it without you. To anyone that I may not have thanked, I didn't forget you. I just can't write three years of memories down in one piece of writing. All of you will hold a special place in my heart forever. Thanks for the memories. Future Goals: To become an elementary school teacher, marry the perfect man (I know he's out there somewhere), and to enjoy life to its fullest.

First, I would like to thank my savior Jesus Christ, because of him I can do anything through him who gives me strength.. Mom, thank you for always being there for me. I know I must have been a pain for eighteen long years but, you put up with my attitude and complaints. I'll forever love you mom. Don't worry soon as I get enough money I'm going to buy you a house like I promised. Dad, thanks a lot, I know it wasn't easy for a young man like you to marry into a marriage that involved a young boy, but you received me with all of your undivided love, you held nothing back. I can't remember a time when you weren't on my side. You were always loving and supportive. I want to thank you with all my heart. I love you dad. Julie, thanks for being a great sister and I'll always be there for you, love you. Nana and grandpa, you guys are the best grandparents a kid could have, love you forever. Coach Sabourin, thank you for opening my eyes to "ENTHUSIASM". Coach Sullivan, You are a very unique man and I would like to thank you for pushing me to the edge and for helping me into manhood. Good ole' Sargent Pinckney hope you get that "Kilo-Juliet." Andy you've been my boy since I've moved here and I know we will be forever. It would cost me a "Big Blue Lady" and a half to write down all of our memories, you and I will be tagteam champs. Stove Daddy, I remember the first time I met you and it's been all good. The wrestling events, the beach, the rides to school and having "Radio Boy" for a brother. I'll always be your Korean. Hevey, I'm glad you moved to Hanscom, I don't know what I would do without a Christopher Guy Patrick Hevey singing and making the funniest damn faces in the world. Elks forever! Dan, I appreciate your hospitality and your basement too, I had some of the best times down there ("Milkman", hope you didn't lose it.) Vinny, I know the "Bulldog" will go places in life, see you at the top. Angelo, the Italian Stallion, watch your back if you know what I mean! Jeff, I just want to thank you for being you. Your a great kid and I know I can count on you (the time you gave me a ride home at 2 a.m.) and you can always count on me. Adam/Dolemite/121 Buc Sweep/Blackula Bleser. Thanks for the good times. Sully, I wouldn't be a "Willy" without a "Mike", thanks for the headaches. Sean, my brother, good luck in the Korean Army, look me up when you get back. Terrina thanks for making my life a living heaven and hell, you'll always be my Trinidadian Queen, tell your Mom hi. Tasha, I'll never forget Virginia and New Jersey, good luck in life. Angela, didn't think I would write about you did you, well how could I not thank someone who was such a big part of my life, but it ended and we've both moved on with our lives. I just want to thank you for the good times we had. I hope you kick the habit. I also want to thank your mother and father for being nice to me. I wish you the best of luck and remember what I told you, "I'll always be there for you." P.S. Give Bruce a pat on his fat tummy for me. Jamie, sorry about the windshield, I'll get you the money when I can. O.K.? 2+1-Braveheart=Fun, Fun, Fun. I'll never forget Team Bravo in N.J. who demolished Chappy and Team Alpha. Maybe someday you can accomplish the level of "Golf ball" like me. Hey have any C.K. One lotion I can borrow, I love you man. good luck in life. Scotty-D, thanks for pushing me in the weight room, introducing me to C.J., Jamie, and the rest of your crazy friends. I'll always remember taking you with me into the Concord River. What's up Gray Ghost! T.C./Sid/Harry/Mr.Casement/Rand Meet me in Aspen, O.K., but don't drive too close. M@, your a sweetie and I'm glad were "Bob Foss" pals. Hurdy, hope you liked our date to the dance on base. Twomb, thanks for the best psychbag in Bedford, hope you liked mine. Mel, "What I look like...Patti Labelle." Jessica. I love you girl. Remember how we met and look at us now. I've never had anyone write me a letter for everyday I was on vacation. Things like this make me realize you truly are the one for me. I know it'll be tough with me in college, but with a love like ours we can do anything. I'm keeping my fingers crossed for Benjamin Thomas, one day we'll read this to our kids. I'll love you always and forever. There's nothing I wouldn't do for you. Love you! Thank you Karen for the nights you allowed me to stay over, those pregame meals and especially for coming to all of my home games and supporting me. Thank you Tom for being such a great guy, coming to see me play football, and for lending me the Vette and the Blazer. Jaimie I know you think I'm a weirdo, but I'm not, I'm just a dog, a hard working dog. Save me a piece of your annoying 'Rost-Bif. Nana Griffiths, thank you for the food and nice conversations. And how could I forget Uncle Steve and the Infamous Aunt Dianne. Thanks for the laughs and The dance If I forgot to thank anyone like, Lisandra, Jen Lawnmower Thief, Katrina, Rack, Rivo, Jen Chan, Tom and Jackson Bleckley, Col. Pappas, Drew, Mateo, DiSanzo, Ryan Friend, Mrs. Morris and I know there's a lot more I have to thank. I'm sorry, you know I love you all. Good luck guys!

First of all I need to thank my mom. You have been so patient with me, so compassionate, I cannot think of anyone who could possibly have me as their daughter and deal with it so well. I owe so much to you and dad, thank you for being so supportive, and never forget that I LOVE YOU!! You to Carter for being a great big brother, I know you're on your road to success, love you. To Sara, Jackie, Jess, and Lisa-I don't know where to start with you girls. We've shared the best and worst of times together. We've got a lot of memories to look back on, some I'll never forget, and cannot put down on paper (for my own safety with the law). To Sara-we started off together and ended up together, us two have pretty much done it all, from beginning to end, from the path, to Jungle Love, and everything else we've done. I love you and will never forget you. To Jackie-how can I possibly rewrite on paper some of the things we've done, the Infiniti was my treat, coronas daily, I cannot go on and on, but know we always had a good time. To Jess and Lisa-you guys can't be forgotten-I'll miss you next year, thank you both for the good times, I hope to keep in touch. To you four-I love all of you and wish you the BEST of luck. To Josh and Kev-you guys are awesome, I can't start on what you mean to me. Kev, you're great. I hope you're successful. Josh, I'll never forget you, you're so good to me, I hope we're always in touch in one way or another. To Christine, Michelle- you guys are great. I hope you're happy in all you do in life-the best of luck to you both. To the people I want to mention-Colleen, Jeff R, Dan M, Peitchell and Nerny, Kristin, Jaci, Rich, Adam, Paul, Bobby, Dan and Brian, Mike, Nick D, Dave G, Cassett and Rachel, Pete, Jenn, Angela and Marie, Alyson, THW, you're all are great, and to anyone I've forgotten, I'm sorry (I'm late and rushed as usual), but I wish you all and the class of 98 the best of luck, its been a great four years- Good-Bye!

Jo, I'm not as scared of you as I was in the baby pool...thanks for not giving up on me and making me play with you, loving Hampton and Point Break, "thanks for the tip, your welcome for the tip, and here's another tip..." (we finally surfed!), having a rockin' time in the Lincoln screaming Wooshter and Spintah, laughing and cringing at the hole in my knee and driving me to the hospital, being my mom and cleaning up after me, loving yellow, and passing gas. I love you because you're tough and have shown me how to be tough. Thanks Thorens, for feeding and driving me everywhere; J.D. wholeheartedly giving me his food. Debbie, could you BE a little NICER? (double, backward, crisscross...) Thanks for showing us the moose game. (I bet you didn't think you'd get to run with a moose, eh?) There's no way I could have run without you, buddy. Thanks for teaching me how to shop for shoes, laughing at me (and at yourself when you fell in the stream), making camp juice, driving me everywhere in your Adriatic Blue munchkin, stalking Vihann, and being the craziest girl ever. Barry, thanks for driving through crazy traffic to coach us, letting us be ironmen, always asking if we're OK, telling the reporter the nicest stuff anyone could say. Kimbeing the best X-C cheerleader; Katie S.-being a bat; Beth-doing extra intervals; Abby-laughing all the way home from Barry's; Nathalie-eating my poptarts and working hard; Kristin A.-being UN-sarcastic; Kristen J.being born on 10/15; Lindsey-finishin like mad; Amy-always saying hi; Katie C.-loving strides; Heather-laughing at Debbie; Hannah-calling me bionic woman; Pat-throwing apples, going nuts on the cart; Greg-running faster than the road runner; Brian, James, Will, Chris, Andy C. and W.making fun of Debbie so well; Christina C.-touching Carlisle sign; Paulcaring about the team; Brian G.-laughing the hardest at Debbie and being funny without trying. Rob-ob-ob-in, how have I only known you for three years? It seems like way longer! Thanks for entertaining our English classes with your laugh, teaching me the swallowing-water-phone trick, being brave (NOT a wimp!), locker room chats, buying exotic CDs, knowing everyone's name, pink headband, expressing your bum freely on the dock, being quote queen, and getting excited about everything; Steph, thanks for coming to Bedford, being my math partner for 3 years, taking us to Fourth Cliff to discover your Mom's yummy enchiladas, become members of the QUEM club, and learn about major PO and Jars, and for talking about space till 4am. Thanks for leading me through Star-Spangled, being so motivated and teaching me Analysis. Let's run! You guys are so refreshing to be with! Thanks Bumbling Fools-camping out at Dutton's, making fun of hair sprays and going nuts; Duttons for making their house the Bev. house, letting me be a Boy Scout at Smugglers' Notch; Kelly-organizing everything, being the most creative girl around, being good at everything (skating, peer editing, taekwondo, making apple pies...), knowing where to buy cheap grilled cheese, appreciating Wilson's and Jordan action, writing sonnets about me, calling me Leen, laughing at my lame puns, celebrating the main joy in life: BEV! by throwing parties (of Five- every Wednesday, and connecting Bev. to all that exists in the universe the hardcore Bev. addicts (Kelly, Matt, Ben, Vinnie, Bethany, Katie) for being loyal to the gang (even Swank! Ben, buying spoons for Joanna at Stop and Shop and chatting with my grandmother on the way to Hampton Matt, leading the way (clay is the way) in ceramics (we miss your expertise!), giving me Bev. membership card and wearing a girls' pinny for the picture; Mr. Powers gym class-playing hardcore floor hockey games and Mission Impossible; Emilia-being muy inteligente, making thoughtful cards, being a superb track captain, memorizing the presidents on the dock, taping ER without fail and laughing at Debbie. Elena-getting the twucks off the twack; Alison-going to the movies with Tom and Gerry Heather-letting me cruise in the tan van, knowing word to "Her Majesty", organizing Hampton trips; Russos-teaching CCD, taking me to California; Bethany-hating everyone, asking flight attendants for Pepsi, wanting to buy 10pound block of ice, calling me Leen; Tom-being my track buddy and liking poop; Alvin-being an excellent host and friendly boy; Joanna M.-buying smelly No Smokin signs; Ryan S.-worshipping Mo; Melynda-driving to the video store illegally; Carrie-being computer (scary!) illiterate and writing with curly pens; Skating girls (Me, Kelly, Joanna)-Dun, doo, dee, door; Liz-owning 25 pairs of GAP everything; Volpicellis-being efficient; Nicole-buging twin hats; Kara-warning me about sand in my eye; anatomy sleepover, driving Grampi, graduating from Wedgewood; Meg-having blue hair, playing whale; Katie and Régan-giving professional massages; Tricia M.-showing me how to scoop, getting lost in alternate universes; Ms. Smith-teaching me how to beat up people; Sarah D teaching us how to dive and adopting us; Beth-pretending you care what people are saying, Krissy and Carrie-pulling up with getting lost trying to find Wallex, Catherine cleaning up after the Sparrows, Tracy-smiling and being supportive; Srta-para darnos sonrisas en nuestras caras; Ms. Keltnershowing us yoga, Mrs. Sullivan-cheering for us, waking up early to show us cool trails. Thanks to the drivers of Bus 3, for whistling and calling me sunshine. GOALS: surf in Australia; dance with John Travolta

Science League-10,11,12; Math League-10,11,12 NHS-11,12; Enviornmental Club-11,12 Finally, Only eight more months before I leave this hell. In the past 4 years I have learned a lot, saw a lot of fights. Thankfully all my teachers are nice like Mr. Kreuger, Mrs. Gullage, Mr. Maxwell, Mr. McGowan, etc. Even in Chief Ullmann's class I learn a lot. As for other teachers, they provided me with a great learning atmosphere. There are other teachers like Mr. Huff and Mr. Rull who are simply annoying. But they do serve the roles as teachers (scary and boring). As I left BHS I look forward to my future with one word, "CHARGE!"

Activities: Soccer, Skiing, Lax 1,2,3,4—Latin club—tons of other stuff Thanks Mom and Dad most of all for putting up with me all of these years and not kicking me out. You have been very supportive although we do fight all of the time, but u have been very lenient with me, which has taught me responsibility, which will help me later in life and I am grateful for this. Thanx Tommy for being my little spazz brother who i can always beat on. But you're a cool kid and u always helped me figure out computers and taught me to use them to my advantage(hehehe). Thanx to the rest of my family for always supporting me, Pat for letting me come every where with you, Bill and Robin for letting me borrow the 300zx and everyone else for everything and my cousins for always being able to GET to me.Thanks mimi for always feeding me and my friends. Thanks to all of my teachers for putting up with me, all these years, and to all of my coaches— Mr. Wilson especially for helping me to find my love for soccer. Winick thanx for being my most interesting friend. You could always find a way to make any situation interesting. You also managed to get us in as much trouble as I could imagine.....Fireworks officer???, NO those aren't my tire tracks... Are u sure I was doing 80? good thing u didn't clock me earlier at 110..... over 200 pumpkins and everything else like tricker treating in august. Thanks to your fam to for being my second home. Matt u will always be a pain and thanks Mrs. Winick for letting me tag along were ever you all went and being your third son. Frank uÖre the man!!Thanks Sparky. Kruger thanx for being my shortest friend and all the good times we had in England. DiSanzo, thanks for getting all of the girls and reporting back. you have always been a shady character. Drew, thanks for being my BIG friend who is always there to back up my big mouth, and of course knowing everything about everything. Nick, ahhhhh, thanks for being Nick, and also my best friend for most of middle school. Jeb, watch out or I will blow up your car, and thanks for being a kewl kid and letting us stay at your house until the early hours of the morning just chill'in. Tate, remember Jack at Bentley? Rashba, you've always been a good sport about the ears, and thanks for Bentley, it was fun while it lasted. While I'm here, thanks Beth for all the parties and just being cool. and u too Michelle and Kelly. Donovan, thanks for being goofy. Cookman, u r the man, thanks for always being ready to party. KK, u r one of the best friends I have ever had we'll be friends forever. U r just kewl, i can't explain it, i mean pool floats?? You're so fun just to talk to. Thanx Mr and Mrs Kennedy for always having pizza for us at your house. Laura thanks for being my first girlfriend, and close friend, remember Canada??Yellow ball. Susan, thanks for always being around to fight with, u are definitely the sister I never had. Erin, u rule, but u gotta fix, ya know, hangin... thanks mer for being my ski buddy neighbor and other neighbor Liz for making parties interesting, ya u too Rachel! Lesa...trees and keep your hands to yourself. Thanks McGrath for all the parties at your house. Rossi, Adam, Chea, Heavy, Steve, Lorusso, Sullivan, Bobby, Korik, Andy, Waldren, it was kewl parting with all u guys and all of the other random people at Dan's. Thanks Moy boys and Curt, for making life interesting. Thanks to all of my friends on the sports teams I have been on, Brandon and Brad especially, but Craig, Bobby, Jessie(stick with skiing). Kristen our 8 months together was great, definitely a kewl 8 months. U put up with a lot of stuff from me, and even my weird, immature friends. I hope we're friends for ever. Thanks Jeff for never really bagging us.Rebecca, my new girlfriend, I haven't really known u for a month yet(after a month,weÖre in the clear!!) but things are great. When this comes out in the spring, I hope weÖll still be together, but if not, we'll be close friends. Thanks to all of the rest of my friends in school, that put up with my obnoxious attitude, Meg, Jo-Jo, Steph, Johanna, Katelyn, Tom, Al, Ben + Matt, Kelly, Allison, Heather, NED, and ohh ya, Danielle you're sooo cool, and everyone else i forgot, but u know who u are. Future Goals: To become filthy rich, and be happy.

Bree McCay

I would first like to thank my mom and dad,thanks for always being they're for me, through the good times and bad,I love you. Sara(Thelma)-south park, fart corner, "certainly sir", our secrets.You're the best sister I could ever have. To my family and my family away from home (Marika and Walter, Susan and Oscar, the Siegels and Ms.Sylvester), thanks for being so good to me, I'll never forget you. Mom and Cardboard-thanks for letting me live at your house 23 hours a day. Cardboard, you are the biggest pain and you are only good for lifesavers and burritos. Mom thanks for all the food, always making fun of Krista with me, telling me that you love me. I love you. Jane and Ed-thanks for all the rides to see Jamie and making me feel like part of the family. Ed, thanks for making fun of me. Jane, thanks for always defending me. Maybe someday neither of us will have to keep an eye on Jamie. Thanks for everything, you two are great. Krissy-You've always been there for me,we have so many memories: lunch with the snobs, prank calling Bethany, February vacation '96, hand massages, nail, James Peredes, mocha blasts, making dinner, my cool hip dance, talking to Gayle when I was passed out, hay in our hair, Tracy Cook, 11:00 wrestling matches, the little green man with green hair. Jaclyn-Cocoa, we've had so many different funny guys from other towns that we have to laugh about, FRG's, Lexington boys, and Simon your German lover. We've been through so much together, our parents grounding us, etc. Remember thrashing on the snowboards, singing to Nate, and your sixteenth birthday. Katelyn-I've known you since I was two in Ms. Peel's class. I'm sorry that we have grown apart. But despite the turmoil, you're still the greatest friend. We've had some great times like swords, your "Jesus" family, crucifixion of MacGowan's kids and abducting them, Iguana Cantina, T2, Ethan-Nathan, FRG's, your many rockers, the wall, "work it, work it baby..." and most of all "Take Care of You". Robo-I'll never forget, food and lodging, "Zombie", The Shame, removing empties, our walks to Kacie's house, Mr. Donovan and Ms. Matthew's hair, dumb monkeys, poopie undies, cheeda bums, and peeing your pants, most importantly I always know that you will listen to Pink Floyd and get into those weird conversations with me. Mike-You are a great big brother, you have really helped me through a lot. Thanks for introducing me to the stones, and Stone Cold. I'm really going to miss you beating on me, but I will always win, because I'm bigger than you plus Krista lets me. I can always count on you to go to BK and to listen to "thought tape" and complain about my relationships, thanks for the good advice. Bryan-Sublime rules! I will always be one of the guys and I'll never forget the Nashua Runs. I wish your hair had stayed blue. Liz will always be our enemy. We need to make some scrambled eggs at 4:00 a.m., more often. Your going away party was the best weekend I have ever had, we were such a family watching wrestling and playing in the rain and having our mud fights. I love you. Barad (Baryan, Baree, and Barian)-Your always so motivated to go out. I'm glad I can trust you with all my secrets. Let's roast some marshmallows and eat some yogurt in Omar's car on Wednesday night sometime. I love you, man. Eric- I'm glad that I can always count on you to disappear and sleep somewhere weird during a party. Thanks for not letting Bryan and me sleep at Kristin's, that was really annoying. Bentley was a blast and Craig rocks. Don't forget Pueri vs. Puella and out smelly Latin teacher. Have fun at the DPW, with Timmy French. Cally and Kerry-you are the perfect couple and parents. Nerney and Pietchel-making me say "the big boobed physco midget", REO Speedwagon poster. Craig-Caring. Ja-"lights on lights off". Oates-talking to me about HER. Doug-mocking me. Gary-for being the pro. Toad-your a spaz. Laura-URI here we come, connections, MJL and EJR. CT (the only cool base freak)-"I want to molest you with my fantasies", Mr. Max, prodigy. Molly-Boones in the playhouse, car friends. Adam (my favorite 98' guy)-Bobby's party in seventh grade. Andrea-Hootchie mole. Lee-cuddling with me. Ms. Sake's class-scissors and twissers. J.V. Girls Soccer team '95 and '96-defensive ditz's, pizza hut, sorry about our girl talks Chris. '96-Julie, Dave, Fanelli, Goff, Sean, Russ, Mike, Dougie, Chet. '97-Aron, Raug, Omar, Jay. '98 Jackie, Mer, Joanna, Steph, Heather, Megajoule, Dave, Angelo, Hevey, Nick, Dan, Mikey Suls, Jeff, Chea. Underclassmen-Richie, Sabastian, Lesley, Beth, Catherine, Mr. (Scott) Casey, both Sarah's in '99, Mel. To my teachers who got me through it all-Mr. Maxwell and Mrs. Matthews, you two are my favorites. Jaci Robin Krista Mac, you guys rock, and so do the fans Krissy, Sara, Lee, Kim and me. Krista-You are my bestest friend in the whole world. Eventhough, I can't give you a hug, sometimes I really wish I could. We have become so close over the last four years and I hope we continue to be friends for ever. It all started with the people who brought us together Jamie and Pietchel, confessions with Sara, Alf, Cecil, Bob Dole, Stone Cold, Pete and Akil. We then watched and listened to many things x-files, south park, En vogue, the power mix, horay for everything, Mark's masters of metal, and Huey Lewis. After that we visted such places as the landing (Inspiration Point), nuns tree, and Toy Works with Bob and Jason. We later went on to eat chips and ketchup and drink many illegal beverages in your room and the woods. I'll never forget the many quotes we said "When I get older...", "Ed you're a beautiful man" (Ed?), "Don't write a check your butt can't cash", and the most famous of them all, ". Jamie-You are one of the most important people in my life. In the time that I have known you, you've been incredible. We have had so many unforgettable times, and we have been through thick and thin and we survived. We have so many memories: Air Fields, Melvin's, Inspiration Point, our spot at Fawn Lake, Fear, Legals, Breakfast at Tiffany's, Huey Lewis. Don't ever stop talking like Billy or Cartman, or winning at jeopardy and twisted metal. We enjoyed lemonade and jackets, hike school, taking one for the team, and playing catch in your backyard. Thanks for teaching me about the Wall and the Doors. You mean so much to me, and the Beach Boys song #18 says it all, I love you. I'm sorry if I missed anyone, but to everyone in the class of '98, I wish you the best of luck. To the Chicks of '98, keep in touch and just "Hold On", we will all be together forever, I love you all!

Colin McDonough

I would really like to thank my parents for all of the things they have ever for me. The carters for being the best next door neighbors you could have. Sarah Toole for being one of the more reasonable people I know. Sarah Vanderwal for "be nice it's Christmas" and for always being in her own world. Pam Worth for her funniness and the interositter. Katie Boyd for being a good friend that always is cheerful. Rayn Anderson for just being the strange little boy he is. Thanks for looking old and acting like a kid. Steve H. you got the best way of saying things, remember water skiing. Jeff W. look at that star, drive safe. Andy G.

thanks for the rides, it was fun partying. Johnny thanks for being a good guy and for food last summer. T. Anglo D., Dave M., Mark K., Drew A., Alvin T., Dave W. Corey M., Nick S., Andy C. It was fun partying together. Hey Sis, Alison L. we had some good times. Akil M. thanks for being so cool. Kacey L. remember what happened that one time? "98" girls: Jackie D., Jackie F. Kristen F., Katelyn M., Bree M., Stephanie S., Erin S. Joanna T., Katie B., Robin S., Laura O., Susan M., Le. P., we had some good times. "99" guys: Jack K. go hid and I will try to find you, you make a great ninja. Justi B. take care of Jack and stay cool. John D. and Harry M. we had a good time last summer especially stealing Jack's car. Hey Keith, clean up my drive way. To Jimmy F. was fun going to the Blazers game and I hope you have great senior year. To the "99" girls you have problem but hey who doesn't. To Melanie thanks for being the love of my life and a great girlfriend, I hope I always know you. The reason I think we get along so good because we were good friends before becoming a gre couple and I know we will always be there for each other. To the class of "2000" thanks Kendra the only person know in that grade. I would also like to thank M. Savarino who I had all four years of high school, I will always remember Learning Center (I hate think writing). To Ms. Bouzan who I also had for four years of high school for Learning Center, you are a teacher but also friend. I don't know what I would of done if I did not have you and Ms. Sav. Mr. Maxwell you are definitely a different kind of teacher and I think if more teachers had your skill, the school would be a better place. If there's anybody I forgot I am sorry but this is costing me. Future Goals: To retire.

Football 1, 2, 3, 4; Baseball 1, 2, 3, 4; Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4; Morello 1, 2, 3, 4; Blue Crew 3, 4; 90210 4. Thanks to my family who has done a great job dealing with difficult kid, but you finally are free! Mom, you are the most important. Thanks for steering me in the right direction. Dad, for making sure I followed that direction for all the games seen: played everything. Thanks both you for just being cool! Lindsey, we didn't always get along, but I couldn't have asked for a better sister. When I go to school, I will miss you. Jeffrey, you are the man - a little difficult, acted like a sissy, but I love you. When I'm gone, stay out of my bed! Uncle Gerry for being a major influence on me - you introduced me to sports and changed my life forever. To Frank and the Morello's for second home, all the food, all the memories. Frank for being my most important friend, you always made me laugh or mad. Thanks for football in the snow, playstation wars, Spanish videos, and introducing me to a new language, good luck. Kacie the best friend I have ever had. You truly mean the world to me. I will always have place in my heart for you. Bisutiki, the prom, Flight the Slavigator, winter basketball, Profiler and Pretender BNL, and, of course, SNL. Mer (Dites) I will always remember the first date and the ride from Steph's. Kelly's. Between us things have just begun but the sky is the limit. Ryan Friend for making sure I went to Dave Matthew's, U2, BNL, Phish, introducing me to Stephan the TD catches, the 3's, it's too bad you couldn't learn to swing a bat. Oh yeah, all the pancakes and Bickford Molly McWanis the fluff sandwiches were great. I'm still better than you at the bowling alley video game. The B. Kelly (#002 squared), the trips to TGI Friday's, Harva Square, Dave Matthew's, physics class with Ullman, corn horror movies, parking lots, having a bro like Skippy 90210, chillin at your house, the prom, for being my favorite Dutton! It's probably called a maheater at Nomar Rulz! Bethany (#001) for the Yankee Game fight parking lots, Spanish with Rull and Allen, 90210 at Kell for being the Devil and all the Blue. Matty A (#004) for baseball games played and watched, 90210, Boston, you attempt at football, ice cream after ball, 7 years, the hiccups, cheering at FH games. BLUE CREW, thanks for the action! Ben for keeping an eye on my love life, the baseball, football and few basketball games, for stealing my sweats, for the wrestling and the 90210 action! Adam one of my closest friends - a friendship I can't explain, but wouldn't trade for the world. All my friends, I will miss you the most - the wiffle ball games, quarterback challenges, basketball in the snow at Frank's, talking about girls and those head dives you did. Su-beans, sorry about the power bomb(s). You've been a great friend. I will member you for all the times you asked me that same question and, of course, the crackabout! I wish the best for you. To all my football boys. Chea, you will most likely cause the apocalypse. Hevey get that fluff out of your hair. Steve take a shower and enough about the scuits. Sully wash your stuff and fix that cut. Ang let me borrow your undershirt while you fix your mask! H-Dog meday you will be a pianist; until then we can bury each other in beach sand and chew on fingers. Erin S, I'll always remember you for the obvious, but that's finitely not a bad thing and Slavigator, don't touch me! anna, I'll frame the pictures you gave me in math class and can I say Dave Matthew's rulz! Line, you are a ehared 90210 Party of 5 fan!. KB wrestling rulz and maybe someday we can share a hot-dog. To the class of '97 for the football games and especially to Rochele for being a second sister, and Mike Reid for the wrestling via. Coach Sab for teaching me on the field, in the classroom and about life. To all my other coaches for asking me to try a little harder and instilling in me the desire to never give up. All my teachers for leaving a lasting impression on me especially Mr. Palmer who showed me that learning can be fun and Mrs. Laver for showing me that all literature isn't bad. Kelly thanks for the weekend. Cindy thanks for the summer. Christy T for the sophomore year. Jessica G for playing on the trampoline and buying me MacDonald's. Jill for the Lifesavers. Danielle for the date. Rebecca M for being a totally cool girl, and Ben told me.

To all the people that I forgot it's not that I'm not thinking about ya it's just that there is to many to thank and I'm not made of money. Representing B- Town to da fullest.

Corey Moy

First I would like to thank you dad and my mom. Dad you've been there for me even when I was the worst son in the world. Mom, you were there to listen to me. I love you both. Katie thanks for always giving me your hugs and kisses to cheer me up. Ryan you are the coolest kid I know. You and your posse of girls. Ted you would always come with me when I was in the mood to play basketball early in the morning. Thanks. Andrea we've had lots of talks, thanks for listening. BE CAREFUL next year. Chris you always made me laugh. Jamie without you life would not be half as exciting, we have had lots of fun causing trouble together. Curt you were always there for me and I love you for it. You two made highschool so much fun. Pete (Rainman), I would have been in so much trouble with C/J if it was not for you. Thanks for watching out for me. Angelo you are the funniest person I know (don't forget our promise). Alvin, you are my oldest friend. Probably the smartest too. You one fly chinese guy. Jeff you were such a good friend and you were always there watching over me. Kim you became one of my best and closest friends. I will love you always. Brent, you may have annoyed me sometimes but you are still a good friend. Steph you were my Spanish bud and we always told each other our stories. Danny, you were always cool to hang out with. You always watched out for me. Doctor Rashba, you are the kindest man I have ever known. If only everyone knew how much you have helped with not only my life but everyone else's you would definitely get an award. I love you for that. Ben you are an honorary Moy. Thanks for killing my neck in that wrestling video for Sociology. Emily you think you know everything. That is probably what I like about you. Mark you were so robbed on that call in your states game. Kacie you were always the most fun to tease. Just watch out for your hair. Erin the offer will always stand. Debbie we were definitely the two smartest people in Coach Sabs. Analysis class. That is why I switched into a lower level. There is nobody else that made me laugh more at a dance than Adam. I know you wished you were Chinese that is why you bought that Chinese Pride T-shirt. Jeff you are the coolest junior. Brad you were my favorite person to beat on. Jon you are one funny freshman. Corey, you might have pissed me off once but because of your name I forgave you. Rachel and Liz you to are yourselves no matter what people think and that is cool. Katie, I know you are 5'2. Don't push your dog over when you tell her to sit pretty. Jeff, what is this liquid coming out of my head. Why does it smell like this. Chris thanks for lending me your library card. Mark I did not mean to kick you so hard in our Sociology project. Caroline we were in so many of the same classes this year. It was a lot of fun. Mr. Maxwell, you were the greatest teacher I have ever had. Sorry about the watergun. Akil you got so much better in basketball. I wonder why so many people like you so much. Coach I've had some tough times in basketball but I also had the most fun playing it. Jen you make me laugh how you are such a spaz. And also I'd like to say Thanks to the whole MOY CLAN, Jamie, Curt, Ben, Pete, Angel, Brent, Jeff, Dan, Steve, Jenny, Andrea, Ted, Chris, Ryan and Katie. THANKS TO ALL OF YOU.

It's a little after 1 a.m. and I'm not too quick on spelling. I'd like to start out in the traditional manner of thanking my family. I'd like to thank them for putting up with me for the past eighteen years; for letting me and my bands practice out in the garage and down in the basement without getting too upset at all of the loud "noise". For understanding that when I stayed up late outside, working on my car that it was for a reason and not least it was keeping me out of trouble, for the most part. Next, I'd like to thank all of the teachers that have had an impression on me. In no particular order (except for grade): Ms. Mahn; Ms. Yoshizumi; Ms. McGrath; Ms. Thomas; Mr. Joki; Mr. Piece; Ms. Almy; Mr. Cedarland; Ms. Falcone; Ms. Vermier; Mr. Miller. Now to the high school teachers. Mr. McGowan. Mr. Joe Modzelewski for pushing my mind, even though you knew that I didn't want to do the work and for being a very fair, educated and knowledgeable guy. Mrs. Sullivan for being one of the nicest, fairest and non-judgemental teachers and people that I have ever met. Mr. Palmer for giving me a swift kick in the pants (metaphorically) and for making fun of your students in light-hearted way. Ms. Barry (Mrs. Morris) for being the coolest history teacher I ever had and for getting me in trouble at work (carriages). Mr. Sabourin for always wondering, "Is this hard?" Ms. Suprise for keeping everybody on their toes. Mr. Powers for letting me go in the weight room. Mrs. Gullage for letting me come into homeroom late and not saying anything. Mr. Maxwell for being on the wall from day one, even though everybody thought you were a weirdo to begin with, and for having the most original on-line name. Mr. DiPietro for letting me work at my own pace, how ever fast it was, and for teaching me some of the things that I will actually use from his school. Mr. Connolly for allowing me to be ambitious and for helping me find new ways to do things that I would have never thought of. Mr. Ullmann for, periodically, being the most eccentric teacher I ever had, "Check your units!", and for pounding the blackboard. Mrs. Messmer for the bag of Butterfingers. Mr. Low for putting up with me and the whole crew in late February - early March. Mr. Reagan for so many things, but since I have to keep this under 1000 words, I'll only name a few: letting me take the quads home the first week, being a fabulous musician, music interpreter and music teacher, for helping me (with Wolfie and Geary) publish my first book, for broadening my musical abilities as well as interests, and first and foremost for being my favorite teacher of a time and, of course, for "HEY NOW!!!!" Now all of the non-teachers, once again in no particular order. I'd like to first of all thank Andrea Reagan for her beautiful smile.) Pat Moeschen for the cheeseburgers, COME ON!!! Jim Morris for bustin' your butt to finish writing one more lick. Dennis McDonald for letting "Ringo" play the drums. Thanks to the D.A.P. and the Fe-D.A.P. for being a kickin' posse, but I don't know what you're talking about. Steve Iwanchuck for carrying on the legacy and keeping me out of the LOOKOUT!! Steve Wilson for helping me out so much on my car. All the people at my lunch table junior year for bugging me about when it would be done. Katie for many things including going to all but one of our shows and paying every time, for being there to talk to at any time, giving me free stuff at Breuggers, and so many other things, but you probably know all of them. Marianne for making great sandwiches and for that elbow you always seem to need. (GOATS!!!) Honkus for joining marching band and being so dedicated to it, unlike some other people. Everyone in the marching band for giving me my great memories. Coach Wilson and Coach Barton helping me at soccer. Krista for teaching me that laws are better than gum. Jen Mills for teaching me to Wolfie for many things in marching band and wind semble. Geary for writing down quotes and for your d laugh. Matt Abt for teaching me the lay-up in 5th ide. Stephanie hill for the time we shared. Drew for ng one of the only people that believed that I could ld a car. T.C. for letting me learn how to drive a stick your car. Gabe for being my homie from the old-school e posse and for being the basest in our first band. ke Boucher for your rat tail, beef jerky, guitar playing, l your dads barbecue sauce. Pam Worth. Eric Asetta. dy Dern. Ian Watt. Lee at Sherwood Forest. Jen apson for our song (I'm not King Richard). Tommy udanza. Meg Hammel for teeth. Carie Schamel for tches and rides to school in the morning. Jeb Brady for tting me at wrestling (only 11 more times). All of e people mean more to me than just what I have tioned here, but it's late (or early) and I need to go to . I know that there are a lot more people that have ped me out and have influenced me over the years, and sorry if I have forgotten to put you down on this little , but you should already know how much I appreciate r efforts and I will never forget you. 98.

Activities: Football 1,2,3,4; Hockey 1,2,3,4; Lacrosse 1,2,3,4 I would like to thank my parents; always willing to support me. Spending every weekend and all my summers at some sort of athletic field or Hockey rink. Most of all the pre-school hockey practices. 4:10 A.M. is never any fun. Special thanks to my brother Ryan for being my best friend and also being supportive. Being on the same team together was awesome. He was always a motivator at motivating me. Now it is time for me to move to College. Thank you to my Football, Hockey, and Lacrosse teammates. A special thanks to Coach Sab for believing in me and telling us to always "be humble and be ENTHUSIASM!" Coach D'Entremont: "Don't be in a hurry to make a mistake." And I can't forget Senior year in the Ahaus hockey league. A very special thanks to my family again for all of our memories. Future Goals: Working forward to be successful in whatever happens.

Activities: Class President 1,2,3,4/ Varsity Basketball 1,2,3,4/ Varsity Soccer 1,2,3,4/ Team Friendly's 3,4/ First I'd like to thank my parents. Mom & Dad, your guidance & support was what got me through a lot of tough situations & knowing that you loved me no matter what means a lot to me. I hope someday to be as good at being a parent as the two of you are. I love you both. To AARON- your a great older bro and it was fun beating on you when we were little. MISTY- you're the best little sister ever. you're quiet, cute, and a chick magnet. To my boys, CORY- you are the nicest kid I know. Even though you made me cry in the 6th grade, you have become one of my best friends. Remember schooling those kids at the Lexclub and taking their money, and for always talking trash w/ me. DREW- For always being there to hang out with when everyone was w/their girlfriends. Don't forget where the buffalo romes, ripping my shirt at Metallica, & the N.Andover punchingbag. DAVE M. V-8, thanks for never using your knife on me, for Bentley, all those Pete's & you lasted so little time. next year you'll make it all five days. NICK- ummmmmmm, thanks for always saying something stupid to get me out of trouble when I made a bad joke, for going through the Sophomore yearnightmare w/me, for always fixing my tie, cheeseburgers, hot commodities, & for making every girl jealous w/that rack. DAVE D- For giving the fica lessons to Brandon w/me, comparing war stories, knee's, for having more DMV points than/me, for teaching me/how to tell how much a girl weighs, and gentlemen establishments. JEB- for all of our talks about women, lifting partner, "I own that", SAT class, the smell, teachers, & the green machine. WINNICK- for dressing up like me/on Halloween. for teaching me about motorcycle repair, and M&M's. KRUGER- for always being someone to look up to...way up, for being a riot, for kicking the ball at the Acton kid, and for having the biggest skickers of all time. TATE- for driving me/ to school, for being my first Bedford friend, for sharing my 3rd whl, and for dating those seniors w/me. To MATTY A. CURT, PAT D. My first thank you must go to the Lord for always providing the energy to sustain me and allowing me to stumble but never fall. Also I am grateful to my family. You guys have not given up on me even when it seemed hopeless and constantly told me that I will not fail. This has meant a lot to me and I won't forget it. Jim, you have been the one to understand me the best and always offer a solution that makes sense when I am in trouble. I have followed your example in many ways, but wouldn't have admitted it until now, and your success has been an inspiration to me and sometimes the last thread to keep me sane and while still in school. Mom and Dad you know what you've done so lets not take the rest of this book to describe only a small portion of it. Jesse you've always been the quiet one one but many people swear your a spittin' image of me so thanks for being my quiet half. (You are about half of me) And last but not least, except in size, Ben, you will probably never be the spittin' image of anyone but you will always be a voice thats heard. Some day you won't be the baby anymore but I will always remember you as my littlest brother who sat with me and entertained me all through my surgery. THE CREW. Mike and Jeb you guys are the biggest two boys I've ever been friends with and we had plenty of fun with

The Reunion at Nautilus. Thanks Mike for being friends since we were about three, going to the cottage, the River Runner, Baja 186, jet skiing, jumping off the pier and sneaking down there for chinese food. For eating at the "Dead Parrot" and watching those creeps in the limo. Also our bike rides in January with rubber cement and rustoleum, and for night cruises in your IROC or my Porsche. Jeb, you've been the best lifting partner ever and put me to shame more than once. For owning the biggest and most ridiculous pecs in the Bedford school system. Thanks for NAR and spreading that around to everyone. Jeb for goosing it in our toilets, "It's a hobby." Winick for teaching about the fun of dirt bikes, how they go on the street, and for all the trips we took to WilFab. For listening when I wanted to tell someone about Vertigo and more, and for trips to mikes cottage with Jeb and waterskiing. DiSanzo for driving a DAA DAA WAGON liking it and for the time I slept over during Christmas break. We loved the Boston concert and trips to Mansfield, speakers, GTX, YZ 250, BBQ's and for your whole family always excepting me, and my eating habits, as if I were family. Anthony, you are a second uncle helping me with my car and and inviting me over, showing me my first concert. Kruger being a car buff and driving spiritedly on occasion. You're the best soccer player in the state as far as I'm concerned so good luck with that in the future. Also being tall and driving an under powered beat car. Matteo, V8, You always understood and didn't mind when I was a hot head, cruising in the V8 and our biking trip to your cottage. You, me, Winick visiting his uncles farm near Halloween, dirt biking and never crashing my bike, two person hole shots. Quality Painting Crew getting sick at the Concord, company days, jetskiing during lunch break, cranking low rider, rodding around in Nick's stinky van, shaky rig, 27 confirmed kills, cranking Trust with Nick in the church parkinglot in the battle wagon. Buying dozens of bagels and donuts, trips to O'Connors that all of us had to go on for one pint of primer. Nick you know how to appreciate food. Dan, Jon, Alvin, Jeb, Matt, Ben, Matteo, Tom we had a blast at Metallica (Fishbowed the Fleet Center) Nick for BBQ at Jr. high parking lot during the foot ball game. Things that go bang and fourth of July with Winick, and listening to 80's music at every party you had. Heather T. for being my little freshman and visiting me in the A.T. room every day. Jeb, driving on lawns, sitting on my antenna, and posing in the basement. Mike for hitting the "supah bah" with me and dirtbiking at Concord, night rides on our mountain bikes and boxing in your basement. DiSanzo, Marinating at your cottage, swimming in my jetski, watching truck racing, our trip to Lime Rock with Jim and eating at Phillips Diner. For being my Mountain biking buddy after everyone else gave out. Dad for our trip see the Formula Continental, and buying me many burgers on the trip. Susan you had some cool parties sophomore year and we had fun playing soccer in the rain (you, me, Mark, Laura) Heather for living down the street from me and riding the bus every day until junior year. Mike for riding on the quad and trusting my work on it. AT NIGHT! Kacie +Erin for dressing up and video taping it with us and for all your pool parties (Kacie) Laura for trusting me dirtbiking when you hardly knew me, and going in the rain a few times. Johnny, you were my second brother in high school, stay on the straight and narrow with your eyes on the prize. Teachers who kept me in school: Sullivan's, Mr.+Mrs. And Mr. Mod. Mrs. Jordan and Ms. O'Malley. Sometimes you guys were the only thing to keep me from walking out the door and giving up. You couldn't have done more for me. If I forgot you then please place your name in the following blank space and write the occasion if you so desire. Thanks to for and many other things to numerous to mention.

Shara Reynolds

I'd like to "set it off" by thanking my MOTHER & CARTER for raising me into the strong young woman I am today. I'd like to thank my sister CARLIE and my brother NAMYERE for being great role models for me to look up to, making sure I did the right thing, and helping me out whenever I needed it. Thanks to the rest of my peeps GRANDMOTHER, AUNTS, UNCLES, & COUSINS. You guys were all there for me whenever I needed it. JASON you were there for me whenever I needed you and you know how I feel about you, so "KEEP IT REAL!" TAMARA out of all my girlz we been though the most together and I'm sure we'll be going though much more.

KESHIA your da realist spooke I know, so keep it the way! I hope ya'll do the right thing!!! FELISHA you will always be there for me. To my B.H.S. girlz JEN, ANDREA, SARAH and STACEY...I'll never forget ya'll (we finally did it!!) Keshia, Tamara, Sarah, and Stacey good luck next year. J. you too! Last but not least, thanks to M. PARKER! To anyone I forgot I'm thinking of you too, THANKS!! Much love to everyone. B.H.S. CLASS OF '98

First of all I would like to thank my Mother and my Father for providing the base for what has been, and what I'm sure will be an awesome life, and my brother and sisters, Rick, Mike, and Becky for taking care that I was tormented sufficiently as a child, and Aunt Kathy for her love and support, and all my extended family for fun Thanksgiving and get togethers. I'd also especially like to thank my best friend Andy for more than I could express on a book of these pages. Thanx to: Jesse B. for being there through tough times and for giving me a car to forever laugh hysterically at, Hannah for Ding-dong-ditch, and The Musketeers, and blowin' stuff up, and snowboarding. Honkus for rides in the late 'cedes, and the zip line, and extreme driving, Frack for being Frack, and japanamati ("Haiya - Dragon!"), and to Mr. And Mrs. Weston for the times they fed my friends and I, Jeff for times racing the Jetta and for providing a good home for my hubcap. Shaun for being the nicest person everybody knew, Reg for her mom, and an enjoyable junior English class, Ka B. for porno at Katie's, Marianne for... whatever. Sarah V. for the alert sounds on my Mac., Jen S. playin' awesome guitar, Nash for talking about cars, Jo for mad physics and Ullman time, and Madrigal, and Andy, river, swim, Andy, water, Andy.... Pam W. for entertainment during lunch with Katie, and History class w/ Mrs. Barry and "Fuaben", Kenny (Grundle) for being Madrigal buddy, Paul Kadish for liking my driving, McGue for smiling in the halls, Danielle de Moss for killing that squirrel, Meg for being a great friend and Pirates, and Laura for the most unforgettable four months of high school, you will always be in my heart. I'd also like to thank: Last year's seniors, Ingrid (Grits) for singing when I tried to be funny, Allison Turner for graph class and ski team, and Em Ullmann for letting me pass on her pirates shirt, my wood burning stove for providing warmth of body and heart, Paul Lesure and the entire Mad River crew for the best weeks of skiing ever; even one on ski team, and Mrs. Laver / Mr. Sullivan for the great seasons, the Art department and Music department, and The Brueggers Crew, and anyone else in Madrigal, and the following teachers: Mr. Sheinfeld, Ullmann, Mr. Low, Mr. Hunt, Mrs. Keltner, Messman, Mr., Mr. Kelly, and Mrs. O'Malley, and everyone else I missed or don't have enough room to write about, who had good times with, you're all incredible. Future goals: To go to college, become an Industrial designer, and make and enjoyable, and mostly honest, living. To apart and consume an entire Macintosh computer. To all over the world. To live my life to the fullest and have fun, because it's not where you're going but how you there.

Krista Robinson

First, I need to thank my family. Mom- for giving me confidence and strength. You have achieved so much, I hope I can follow in your footsteps. I am so happy that you are so involved in my life. I love you. Dad- caadboard- for understanding what I go through and never getting me in trouble when you should have. Even though I don't say it, I love you. Alyssa- for giving me someone to look up to and follow, putting up with my moods, being a sister and friend.
Kim- Drop that potato! Did you hear what I sang? For being a pest and someone I can count on. Remember our original songs. Brandon & Cecil- for being my two best friends. The Waterhouses- for welcoming me in your house and giving me a place in your hearts. You'll always have a place in mine. The Smiths- mom & nope! for making fun of me and sharing children with my parents. For figuring out that we are doing something bad and catching us. Thanks for letting me in your house for 12 years. Gayle & Brian-my "real" parents- For making me think about life and what I'm doing. For giving me a gift of some what "strict" parents. X-Files (getting me out of my house on Sundays).
For Cheese and Nature's Heartland food. Thank you for always caring and trusting me with your daughter. I love you. Jane & Ed- Jane- for helping me make fun of Mike and coming to my games. Ed- for making fun of Bree and just being Ed. Mr. Huff- for letting me make fun of you. I'm sorry your family's always sick. Field Hockey- for giving me four years of friendship and fun. Tracy- Goalie's a hard job. Do it well. Danielle- for being baby cutes. Brian D- I love you. Pete- for talking about my body parts. Ben- for being my brother and friend. Curtis- for being my obsession. Nash- for turning everything into a sexual statement. Shaun- for being the sweetest guy in the world. No one will ever mean as much to me as you. Thanks for taking such good care of our pig. I love you. JoJo- fabric store, Dirty Rotten Scoundrels, Ruprect, For staying with me in Physics, being the best beaver ever. Mer-moths- for cover girl dances, so wait is there a game tonight? I don't cayah! Thanks for getting me so involved with everything and wanting to hear about my stupid guy problems.
Meg-milky- keeping the nicknames, the milking kit, F.H. deep feelings, trying to say the hottie moths, frolicking in the leaves. Chris- for insisting that I go out with you.
Maurice- for being such a MAN, being the best sweet talker in the world, and the cat incident. Guys of '96 and
'97- Doug, Will, Fanelli, Oien, Oates, Todd, Gary, Eric- being so spastic. Cally- for Sundet's house. Pietchel- the poem, ceramics field trip, never calling me when you say you will. Nerney- dancing, singing, loving country & Garth & just being my boy. Craig- cahharing. Apple on your door, the lip that I see forming. Sundet- for mike's bed, understanding depressing problems, having my favorite belly button. Brad- for being scared of me on the bus, telling me why guys are stupid (testosterone), Jamie-for making fun of the way I talk (bus), Huey Lewis, and "that night" (Fear)? John Bentley- being my boyfriend.
Sara (BJ McCay)- being a cool sister and so weird. Lee- fast car, kiss from a rose, barbies. You are five years younger than me, but you are one of my best friends.
Pat, Nick, & Dave- partying and finding places to go. Johnny-helping me learn about life, being my first love. We may be distant, but you will never leave my heart. I love you.
Katie- making fun of Mr. Huff, smoking in the shed, and your funny laugh. Molly- Is this your daughter? I'm with the groom, give me cake. Job at lightbridge, this is (your name).
Strawberry Soda, Poop, Tupac! You are one of my true friends. Chicks of '98 - P-Bench, dance parties, Jaci, Robin, & Krista Mac, Kristin's Cottage, & not going out with anyone else. You guys are the most important thing in my life. Thanks for giving me such close friends to get through
. I know there is pain, but you "hold on" for one more day! (oh, things'll go your way). Katelyn- ditching me in Maxwell's class, making me drive you home (in your car), having le mange, & loving N.H., Walmart. For always wanting to "find people" and beaving at the P-Bench. Kristin-Linkage, Chris Webber & Dave Estabrook, giving me the futon, yelling at me at your cottage, solitaire, foot loose.
One more thing, UMASS-Lowell=FAWNEY! (Clam your Clam!) Jaci-Jack Tripper/Chris Peterson, for helping me stop complaining, understanding boyfriend problems, and for having boyfriends that are so obsessed with each other (Matt+Mike). Wait, are you sleeping at Sprite's house tonight? Robin, ROBO-12 Years Baby! Army boyfriends, Shamu (Maximum Axle), Jaws, Travel Agents, Paul Ryan, Easter, He WRAPPED me! Most important- the Band with #1 hits such as: Go Touch The Ground, Just a Touch of B.U.M. The game of questions, Why the... I'm so glad that I had you to stay with me for our entire school experience, you are a true lifetime friend, I love you for that. Bree- for somehow becoming my best friend, the landing, caadboard in the field, THE Picture, Ed & Jane (rule #1, Ed is God, rule #2, no Bree's allowed) the ALF rap, Akil at my house?, X-Files, Subwfa, the clubhouse, Pietchelmy love for life, my dirty, smelly room, there's a huge L over my head- where? Paula bum walk, nun tree (keys on the roof), our competition (XXXXXL), Jr. Year before football games (my leg spasms), staring at the stars in your room, getting mike and I together, New years eve (never doing the yard sale), thinking about why things work and happen, The Fear night (quite an experience). I don't know what else to say, you have been the greatest friend and I don't know how I could ever live without you. I know I always have you to either talk or to not talk. Thank you for being my closest friend and favorite girl. Mike- my baby sweets, Denny's, the futon, cracking my toes, your different voices on the phone, nintendo (zelda), talking in our sleep, massages, the Aquarium, being I'm cute and you're cute and we're both cute, and we go together.

Mike, Thank you for being such a big part of my life for so long. It amazes me how you can put up with such a complicated person. I value everything we have and thanks for caring for me no matter what I put you through. I love you so much. (P.S. I love you the most... o.k. we're even.)

Marianne Roseland

I want to thank my parents first for putting up with me, even though you hardly ever saw me. Dad, thanks for giving me the car to drive and walking to work, even in the winter; thanks for being so supportive and patient with me. Mom, thanks for giving me some space these four years and trusting me. Adrienne, for being my sister.
To Katie for being one of my best friends: slush puppies on Christmas, cones, carousing the keeno strip at the airport, helping me survive in Latin (I like goats), Proserpina (or should I say Joan of Arc), stealing all my clothes, flashing, lending everyone in the world (especially me) money, Pumpkins concert, staring at Bryan's butt while bowling, plastic trash cans, Don't Go Out In The Woods, mentos, letting me cheat at dots, making fun of everyone in listener's guide, Saturday night porn, "I like Elvis", stalking Mmm... Bryan, bowling for shotgun, ears of corn, driving to a memorial in the middle of the bay, Flesh Gordon, 15B, Klepto Club, letting me live at your house and treating me like a sister. Sarah V, for being the first person to talk to me at school, introducing me to everyone, the base movies 10th grade, Frozen Grapes, for wearing red and green for months, for cruising on base when I got my license. Jen, for your Belly shirt, singing me your songs (you can't speak Spanish and you smell bad too), Pumpkins, U2, swimming, streaking in the snow, brownies, hiding in the woods at Springs Brook, Christmas vacation, just happening to drive by Dave's house, for being there even when I wasn't being very nice, Lily, Sleepaway Camp, seances, being so romantic and emotional it makes me want to puke. Emalie, for thinking about sex ALL of the time, your fascination with Barbie, being a Frozen Grapes groupie, the prom, porn, turkey baster, letting me and Katie wake you up in the middle of the night so you could spend the night at my house. Pam, for forgiving me for all the things I've done, I'm sorry. For talking to me in gym 10th grade, listening to music without your headphones plugged in, making me feel like an idiot in history, Pumpkins concert. Bryan, for bowling for shotgun, corn, letting me and Katie stalk you, letting us watch you work on your car for hours, liking your coffee the way you like your women, cones, smiles, goats, getting lost driving around Boston, ending up by a memorial, for reminding me that "hey, I need that elbow", for making everything into a sexual joke, 15B; Roy Rogers, I'll make you a sandwich anytime. Honkus, for being a very strange boy, Warped Tour, South Park, calling me Kenny, making fun of Sabrina and Eric at work, letting me bite your butt, never paying attention in sociology, try not to blow yourself up anytime soon. Andy, for making sure I'm always wearing my diaper, letting me drive your car, corn, saving me (cones), for showing me The Blues Brothers, beating me up, tackling me and giving me a concussion, your bed, for going to UMass with me and Katie, following the trolley. Sarah T, for enduring Physics with me, for being an actress all of the time, joining flags. Regan, for making fun of me and calling me dumb in history, being one of the most beautiful people I know, making me espresso, wearing the coolest clothes, history project with Jon(ughh!). Adam, for always reminding me that "Marianne's got big", for letting us pee in your yard. Jesse, for having the softest, prettiest hair but never wearing it down, surviving off free bagels. Jen D, for moving here and being one of the group, being so fickle, having an even bigger mouth than me. Elissa, for making fun of me and hitting me when I deserved it(and even when I didn't), being the loudest person I know. Emily, for telling me your secrets and trusting me, even though no one else does. Dave, for still being a ten year old boy, bringing your Discman to work, keeping my Steve Miller Band CD for six months, crashing your car at least once a month. Stefan, for taking YUM! and WOW! and for :). Shaun, for being one of the nicest boys in the world. Dan, for being Dan, for keeping me warm during band, and warming my fingers, and for being such a gentleman. Jon and Jeff, for being great drum majors. Jen C, for practically blinding me with your coat, being so happy and cheerful, even at 7 in the morning. Flag Squad and Lisa, thanks for a wonderful two years, and thank you Lisa for putting up with me and Katie. Marching Band, you guys are some of my best friends, camp and the seasons were so much fun, thanks for making those years so memorable. Mr. Reagan, for being the best teacher I've ever had, the smiling Jack-O-Lantern. Thanks to everyone, I love you guys. To anyone that I might have forgotten, sorry, thanks for everything. Future Goals: travel the world, go sky-diving, become a doctor, have fun, enjoy my life.

First of all, I'd like to thank Jesus Christ, without whom, I would not have been able to endure through four years of high school. Without His guidance and unconditional love, I might not be who, where, and what I am. Thanks to my parents, for everything! The 4:00 in the morning wake up calls for practice, the videotaping, the shoulder I could cry on, the ones I could talk to when it seemed no one else would listen. The encouragement, the knowledge that whatever I choose to do with my life is acceptable in your eyes, and you'll love me regardless. To my bro....keep your chin up. Don't let anyone tell you what to do or be ('cept me!) Keep plugging away, and maybe you'll get the hang of life....I'm still trying! Senior thanks Activities: Student Atmosphere Committee, National Honor Society Future Goals: a career in wildlife biology, a trip through Europe, a visit to Wallachia. Our years isn't all that long; there are so many people who have affected my life these last few years, that it's going to be tough trying to acknowledge everybody, so I beg forgiveness now, before I have offended anyone. First thanks to Pam, Ginny, and Ayesha; they have been there for me too many times to count. Pam, how do say thank-you for one million late night phone calls? For crazy anger, master plans, and main street canoeing? For validation? How do you say thank-you when you can't even say goodbye? Ginny, thank you for allowing me to be a little tyrant, and for not allowing our superficial differences to interfere. Hmm . . . (the zombie dance, mikes, old afternoons). Ayesha, you are my oldest friend. Thanks for pony express letters, and picture boxes. For breaking my knee and for always making fun of me. I know you know that I love you, but now it's on paper, so it's real. Thanks to Andy, Adam, Dave, and Honkus, my happy little eunuchs. I love you. Anti-lock brakes, the underside of lab tables, AP chem., one thousand head rubs. I will never forget you guys, ever. (A special thanks to Andy, for always putting up with me — in all of my glory.) And thanks to Jesse, for refusing to be one of my happy little eunuchs. Stephanie R. Thanks for being so much fun, I will miss you. Leslie, you whiny little brat! I LOVE YOU. Donuts and coffee and the inability to converse on the phone. Oh my dear miss Minchin, take care of everyone, they need you. I need you. Carrie, I love you. I hope you will always have access to a kitchen (because Leslie and I are coming over for cookies!). I hope that we don't lose touch, because who else will clean out your drain? Pat and Jeff, you might think that you are big and bad and scary, but I know better. Thanks for another perspective, and relentless short jokes. Marianne, I know you lived in Korea, didn't do your homework, and went to the Olympics! I also know that I am going to miss you, tons. Katie (take care of Marianne, and put back those traffic cones!). Jen, your voice is beautiful, so is your guitar playing . . . Jamie Carpenter is not. Hannah, want to cleanup after messy birds for the rest of your life? Me neither! Let's let the little boys into the great horned owl cage. Hehehe. Shelly, take care of yourself, okay? And BE GOOD. To my political science class: I LOVE YOU (even you, Dave!) Thanks for being argumentative, funny, accepting, and, well, the greatest class ever. Angie, thanks for being the ray of sunshine that you are! Molly, thanks for showing me how real you are, for not laughing at my poetry, and for being a friend. Tom, thanks for being the coolest guy . . . if I have a son, I hope he grows up to be just like you. Ben, thanks for being my nemesis, we all need one. Katie B. and Caroline: Physics, need I say more? Well, yes. Thank you for back-rubs and homework and singing Ullman songs. Thanks for being the best physics buddies. Alison, thanks for being "bad at ceramics," for discussing relationships endlessly, and for always being willing to listen . . . and to laugh. Scott, thank-you for being you. You were always there when I needed you, and you never invalidated me (but you did make me watch Machine-Gun Kelly). I love you, even if you tick me off, sometimes. Hey, you're a Wiener, it's your job. Vanessa, thanks for introducing me to Xena (my future wife), and for always listening (although I did my share of that, too!). You are an awesome chickadee, and I love you. But if I have to kill you to get to Draco, I won't hesitate Geoff, what can I say? Thank you seems so inadequate. You made me trust you, you let me be insecure, and doubtful, and crazy . . . you loved me. You drove me EVERYWHERE, you put up with my Leonard Cohen and John Malkovich obsessions, you even dealt with the scary butch cop. I love you so much, and I will miss you, tremendously. I have had the best teachers BHS has to offer! You guys know who you are, thanks for everything, I owe so much to you all. Hey Mom, if there is one person, above all others, to whom I owe everything I am and have, it is you. I love you, I thank you, and I am going to miss you like crazy! Love, Regan

Carolyn Rae Shamel

Activities: sports and clubs. First, and most importantly, I will thank my family. Thank you Mom for never calling me the right name, attending my sporting events, cooking, sewing, being Polly PT, watching 'Ellen', and not pressuring me. Dad, thanks for encouraging me to do well in school, being my editor, taking me on great vacations, and being a handy-man. Sarah, thanks for thinking I'm so "cool", backpacking trip, smores, beading, dolls' Christmases, haunted houses, and for being the best big sister. Steph, thanks for "ello", our tricks, being the typical irritating little sis, and for being the best little sister. Kibby for being so cute and persistent. Pablo, wherever you are, for only coming to me when I called. Thanks to Ransom for being my future brother. Next thanks to Bryan because you are always there when I need someone to talk to. Thanks for biology (belly breather), 11:30 PM, sk8ing, boarding, playing ping pong, 1/2 pennies, your prom, tictactoe, Decordova, and for telling me I'll never be as cool as you no matter what I do. Thanks for dealing with everything, and being a best friend. Thanks to Skot for bein' a bro'; listening to all my problems. Nat, thanks for hating me, then loving me, and cool talks. Thanks Patty and Ira. Patty for my "prom". Thank you Margie for calling monsters all day long, Mrs. Champas, haunted houses, there's a monster in the car...oh kapeeka! S'Hamel, beach trips, CAMPING trip, lifeguarding, bird paradise, sleepovers, and for always having the best time when we are together. Since we were 3, we've had so many great times, and I know we will continue to. Michelle- thanks for laughing so hard with me so many times. Sk8ing, snowing, surfing, Souper Salad, scorpios, Killington, quackers, FLORIDA (poolhopping). Thanx for being there for me through all the Bryan shoot, and everything else. I'm so glad we became great friends. Tristan, thanks for the love letter (haha), playing truth or dare, sk8ing, history classes, and bein' a girlfriend. Matt... thanks for cool talks on the phone, snowboarding trips, and for doing a great Adam Sandler impression. Dave (Chappie) thanks for being so nice, loving Oldies, and Braveheart. Mer- thanks for gymnastics, skiing with care, sign language, 3some nite (the movie), and Micheal Motorcycle. You have always been a special friend. To the sleepover friends for Can't Buy Me Love, Dirty Dancing, many truth or dares, sleeping in weird places, The Witch of The Shawsheen, Potato Day, J.P. soap operas, and for having a blast 2gether. (p.s. thanks to Tom W. for marrying me) Thanks to Katie (Chodie) for being my best friend for many years. You helped me discover rug dancing, bum catalogues, Peter Pan, and most importantly, how to bargain hunt. I'm pleased we have united again in friendship. Thanks for the Frankie Valli concert, soccer, ping pong, Pizza Hut, Salem, and once again teaching me to bargain hunt. Thanks for our never ending talks on weird subjects and for being so neat. Jojo- thank you for being the sweetest girl, and beating up pillows with me, Molly, for Mobs or Nob, singing tune of "Dear Liza", reciting Can't Buy Me Love, and "Istanbul". Joanna for beating me up, Mr. Shiny's art class, always Coca Cola! Puddles!! In fact, thanks to my whole Life Quest group: Jo, Mark, and Dave R, for being so obnoxious.... tropical fish! Mark K. for destroying my papers with "geek"! Joanna + Bethany 4 the soccer trio: peer pressure, and the day we died. Bethany- thanks for liking the exact same foods as me! And always discussing food, hair, and being on the News! Regan for always being alphabetically in front of me, and always being cute and nice. Leslie and Regan for d.f., dropping cookies in the floor, the boy in the heater, and cooking again this year. Leslie for photo + gym class, going to the movies, and for being pleasant. Bryan N. for crotches (on trees), and TEETH! Gabe M. for your barbecue, Mr. Donovan's class, and crushing Meg. Sean Shumarin for having the coolest name in the world, art class, spilling paint all over yourself, and running funny. Erins for getting our skis stolen together. Erin S. for ski camp. Rashmi for art class, loving my sis, our bet, joking in humanities-playing sticks- Dave M. for anonymous, breaking mirrors, and the 8th grade semi-formal. Corey for being sooooo slow, but a really nice guy. Emily for the high jump and all the long track meets. Caroline K. for Henry the 8th, making radio stations, track, our snowman, and the Kiss concert. Caroline L. for gym class (mad dog). Steph for hair in analysis, and your water fight parties. Robin for wally (Katie + Sara), confetti, skiing, 8th grade math and Alive. Katelyn for cheetahs and ouija boards. Hannah U. for being neat. Thanks to all SBP guards. Nick S. for introducing me to boarding. Pat + Curt for Mrs. Hoyt's class. Jeb for french grades. Brian Cox for Sk8ing times. Pam for yummy deodorant. Eric G. for Ellen, dumb jokes, and not being scared of who you are. Also thanx to the whole soccer team (making states!!!)(bench team!!!), The Beach Boys concert, Jen, Ginny, Keri (for the UVM visit), my old Girl Scouts Troop, Sarah S. for gym, Danielle D., Mrs. Sullivan (for having the most interesting class by being a sublime teacher, and helping me with my college essays), Mr. Sabourin for poppy seed muffins, Justin, Hannah G.

for our rabbits, Alison (for Jem + Scout), Kelly for this computer controlling me!, Mr. Sheinfeld for putting up with me for 3 years. FuTuRe gOaLs: Become a psychologist, find my true love, and just be happy.

Shannon Simmons

Alright everyone. I have soooo many people to thank and not enuff space to do it, so bare with me. The family. Thanks to my father. Where do I start? Through the good times and the bad, you've always been there for us, and I know you always will be. Without your guidance and support, who knows what I'd be like. I love you, daddy, and I'll always be your little "Nin". To Mom. Hey— Where would I be without you? I'm glad we've become closer through the years. It means so much knowing that there is someone always there for me— as a mother, and as a friend. I think about you everyday and how much you've helped me. You don't know how much I appreciate it. Never doubt, even when I'm in one of my "I hate the world moods", how much I love you. To Stephanie. Even during our worst fights, never forget that I'll always be your sister, I'll always love you, and I'LL ALWAYS BE HERE FOR YOU. To Kim. My littlest sister. You've grown up way too fast. Stay sweet and cute, and always remember that I love you. To the rest of my family, aunts, uncles, grandparents, etc. I love you all. Who next? Leeland. You've been the older sister that I never had. You've taught me so much, and I wanna thank you for that. You've helped me through a lot— especially guys. You always had this way of knowing what would work out and what wouldn't. You were right about this one!! So many memories, I don't even know where to start. Never forget Mortimer, Sheet-man, SASQUATCH, New Years, Menace To Society, "How's your eye?" etc.... Thanx again, Lee. I don't know who I'd be without you. Just remember—guys come and go, but friends are forever. Now, Boo. We've been best friends for three years now. Even through all of our fights. But we always seem to work them out. If it weren't for you, I'd still be the quiet little Shannon that I was before. Now look at me!! We need to thank Ja Lowry, Aron, Omar, Doug, Anurag, Brad, and the rest of the crew of '97 for giving us something to do every Wednesday night! And the crew of our Sophomore year: Mike(Sandman), Karl, Ron, Ian, Brett, Mark, Charles, Tom D., Jim, and Mike Alexander. Remember. Superman and Robin always stick together! I Luv ya, dude! Stephanie Crook. A.K.A Barbara. You, Kacey, Leeland and me have had so much fun just chillin'. Remember my Lucky Charms shoes, sasquatch, "I want an antifarm, yo!" It's been fun, and keep in touch. To Kacey. All of the classes we've had together have been so much fun and I won't ever forget U.S. History class—buck teeth, that's all I have to say. DUNKIN DONUTS!!! To Cara. We've become really good friends in the past two years, and believe it or not, you've helped me through a lot. Alexanders was a blast! Remember going to see Scream at 12:30 in the morning and Mike slept the whole time? FUN!!! To Melanie. I miss being as good of friends as we used to be, but I know we'll never lose touch, because we're cousins. To Amy— BUCKY!!!! To Torrey— you are just an AARDVARK!!!!!! To the girls of '99. Kristin T., Amy, Melanie, Kristin H., Cara, Jessica, Nicole, Kitty, Marrienne. Have fun guys. Last, but not least at all, thanks to Dave, for being the best boyfriend anyone could have. I know we haven't been together for too long, but it seems like forever. You are the best thing that has happened to me in a long time. Thanx for all you've done for me— you'll never know how much you mean to me. We've had a lot of good times, four wheelin', New England Dragway, The DiPerna's house every weekend, and that's just a few of them!!! Thanx, sweetie. Now, to anyone I forgot. "Yo, my bad, dawg!" (Shara told me to write this). Seriously, I'm sorry. But I'm sure someone else will remember you!!! To the Class of '98. I wish you all luck in all you do. See ya!!!

Activities: Football 1,2,3; X-Country 4; Indoor Track 1,2,3,4; Baseball 1,2,3,4; Latin Club 1,2,3. Thanks to: My parents for always putting up with all of the stupid things I do. Mom for always helping me with all of my school stuff, and dad for all the help with sports, and keeping me in line. Also I would like to thank my brother for getting me out of trouble and helping me to make smart decisions. I know I don't always say it but all of you have been great to me and I appreciate it. I would also like to thank my grandmother and grandfather who gave me a lot of useful advice and always caring about me, and to the rest of my huge family, thanks. I'd like to say thank you and I love you, to my girlfriend MICHELLE, you have always been there for me, even through my toughest times, not including the day you left. I will never forget all of the fun that we had together, I just want you to know that I will never forget you and will always love you, also will do anything for you. I would also like to say thanks to all of my friends, all of you guys were great, and were so fun to hang out with. ADAM, you my boy, me and you had so much fun together, I can't forget Wednesdays after school last year. The summer was pretty fun, going to New Hampshire, were we almost died on the way home, and the River Rave, all of us had so much fun and I won't forget about that girl. You helped me with some stuff and I appreciate that, and I hope that some day we can go to Africa together. ANGELO, we didn't hang out a whole lot, until this year, but you were so fun to be with, and don't forget that you can easily be a stripper. ERIC, out of all of my friends, you are trouble, no matter what we did you would find your way into trouble, I hope I get to see you more, and please try not to be a punk. WILLOW, I have to admit that you are the shortest of my friends, I know we almost fought a few times, but don't let it bother you, have fun in college and grow. CHRIS, you're a great friend, and you're so big, which helps. I will never forget that day in Concord, you had my back and I appreciated that, I'm glad you were there. If you ever need anything, just give me a call. STEVE, no offense but you need to stop being a hic, but your still funny. I mean who can forget the hot tub, man your game was on that day, but I hope you can come to the Mother Country with me some day, but for now I hope you have fun after school. CHEA, either you or Eric are the center of all evil. All I have to say is MIKE HARNEY, and I think we know what happened from that, I hope that you don't get yourself killed, and if you ever go back to Korea again, bring me so I can learn some moves. KORIK, even though you might be different from me, I still like you, we had some fun times we, especially English last year. Keep your car in good condition and call me while you are in college. MARK, you have always been fun to be around, I hope I see you more after we graduate, but I know that you will do good in college, and don't forget about us over here. BOBBY, you always had a temper but, I liked it, try not to get in anymore trouble, like Fawn Lake, and watch out for the bees. DAN, thanks for always letting me go to your house in N.H., we had a lot of fun, especially motorcycle weekend. I hope you have fun in college, and call me so we can party. JEFF, you are very weird, but I like you, we had a lot of fun in H.S., and last summer. I will never forget you at the River Rave, and how you got with that girl. Have fun at Middlesex, and if you want to party, call me. MIKE, I can't believe that you are going in the army, we had some good times last year, if we didn't fight. I hope that you succeed in the army, and call me to tell me how you are doing. I would also like to thank: TOMMY, JAY, DOUG, RAUG, GARY, JACK, DUKE, KEITH, BUSA, SKOAL, MIKE, BENTLY, SCOTT, RICHY, ALLEN, TOMMY, KRISTEN, MARIANNE, KATIE, and all of the others that I forgot, I'm sorry. My teachers, BOUZAN, LIGHT, MAXWELL, PALMER, NOLAN. My coaches, SABOURIN, SULLIVAN, AL, and BARRY. Future Goals: Go to college and graduate, then live life to its fullest.

Curt Warrington

First off, I'd like to thank Mom, Dad and Craig. You guys were all I could ever ask for. It might not have seemed it, but I really did listen to you. I know you put up with way too much of my crap, and I'm sorry. Someday I'll make it up to you guys, I promise. To COREY, my best friend through everything and forever. You've always been someone I could trust, and always had my back. I'd never had made it without you, and I won't ever forget what you've done for me. JAIME, ROOOOOOOOOOOOOO, thanks for being the third musketeer (and the one with the biggest mouth), have fun next year, and uh, stay out of trouble! To BRENT, every time we hung out we got in trouble but we had a damn fun time. Sneaking out, partyin' and goin to concerts. I'll never forget the time you tried to kill me coming home from 311. To PETER, my other conscience, I wish you the best of luck. Just remember, when your rich and have moved to Taiwan, I hope you'll remember me and send a little cash my way....and maybe a job. MATT S. you're like an older brother to me, thanks for your guidance. To RYAN DOLAN, we grew up together and I really miss ya, why did we have to lose touch. ANGELO for being a great guy and fun to hang around with. STEPH, I love you, and I hope you know that I will always be here for you. Thanks to AL you were always fun to hang out with, and you threw the best damn parties anywhere. LOIS, you are by far the kindest girl I know, I hope we can stay in touch. DREW, you follow your own path and so I respect you more than anyone'd know, don't ever change. To B.COX, some day I hope to pick up one of your mix tapes. To MEG, I regret how I've treated you, and I regret never getting to know you better, I promise you that I will never lose my marbles. Thank you Mrs. Skavenski, you are one of the few people I really admire. Thanks to JEFF, DAN, and STEVE, my cousins.

DANNY R, the only person I know who would take a ta to my house just to go sledding, I wish we could've stayed close. AKIL, your a good kid and I wish you the best life. MARK and DAVE D. you guys were always fun, and I loved being around, I love ya both. JOANNA M. always stay funny, I hope someday we will finally meet in Main PAT D. you always made me laugh, and on the bench basketball games. To TATE and DAVE M. for working with me (but mostly sitting on the couch and eating making me laugh, and working on the LX178 Liquid Cooler V-Twin, I'll never forget you guys. Thanks BRIAN and SULLY for making baseball bearable. MR. ULLMAN thanks for teaching me how to think. Thanks to KAR, you will always be special to me, sometimes I still miss you. Coach Sabourin and Sullivan, you guys taught me more about myself than I'd ever learn about baseball thanks. To my Midway Crew, I wish I could see you guys more often. WINICK, someday I'll get you back for everything you've done to me. To RICHARD, you are one of the funniest people I've ever met, I hope you're not still grounded when this yearbook comes out. PAT M. thanks for the music lessons, and hanging out in England. JON T, IAN, and COREY, you guys are great, try to stay out of trouble next year. ANDY and JESSE you always made school more fun, especially physics. Thank you M. DIPIETRO, you are somebody I can truly look up to. Thanks also to MR. HUFF, MS. MIELE, MR. DUGGA, MR. RINALDI, MS. KELTNER, AND MS. MATHEW. Thanks to the entire Moy family, my second family, I name you all if I had room. Mr. Moy, you could have been my father, everything you ever said to me made sense. To LAURA, ERIN, SUSAN, and KACIE, you guys were always cool and I will miss all of you. JEB keep hittin' the weights, and BEN, don't ever change. To TOM C. you stupid burnout, I love ya. To CHAD R. you make me laugh with everything you do, I hope you stay just as cool but watch out for flying ash trays. To Coach Burns, uh, never mind. Told ya once, no need saying it again. And JESSE DILL, quit followin' me! To everybody I know, the entire class of '98 and to every one who cared about me, wish you all luck and hope you will all stay in touch. I love you all.

I will never forget you, you will always be in my heart I love you Aunny!

Dave Winick

I would like to thank so many people, not for just helping me, but for tolerating me, not killing me for the jokes I've played on them, and have been good sports; or victims. So, instead of thanking everybody who I've ever known, and completely bore the heck out of you (like most other senior thanks), I'll thank those who meant the most. I'd like to thank all the kids in Bedford for treating me so kind when I moved here, especially Matteo. I'd like to thank Gweat Wahl, Skunky, pumpkin, mailbox, flag, leaf, and so many other random donors, the hospitality of Mrs. Volpicelli, and Matteo and the rest of my friends who seem to always seem to get me into trouble on the weekends, and the people whom have always been there for me, Mr. Maxwell, Mom and Frank.

Biggest thanks go to my mom, for raising me, for always keeping my best interests your first priority, and for sacrificing so much for me. Don't ever think I don't appreciate it. I love you. Thanks to my beautiful big sister Maureen for keeping me sane, for driving me insane, for being nice and for teasing me mercilessly. You've influenced me more than you know - in good ways, of course. Thanks to Tom and Miki and Mr. Joy for always giving me ego boosts. I love you guys. Thanks to my animals, all 9000 of them: Ollie and Georgia (and Teddy and Nikki) for being my fluffy puppies, Jeremy for biting my toes, Fred for biting my fingers off, Sandy for running around me in circles. Vixen for tripping me, and Kaos for being my fat cuddly orange thing. Now to my friends: Katie, for being so generous, sharing my interests (heh-heh), going out with a dirty old pickle, having a certain cramp, letting me cry all over you at Breugher's, informercials, youth group, knowing what time it is, and special drinks, always having gum, and being my strongest link into the univoice clan. I love you. Regan, for being right always, for not wearing a bra, summers, graveyards, and coffee-houses, strange men who undress on sidewalks, for remembering that I, too, must die. (like Lars) For being more paranoid than I, for our "best hits" album, our mutual dislike of a certain college, and for allowing Geoff to paint my walls with nail polish. I'll miss you so much. To Ginny, for being a Lanka, using words like "burgoo" in sentences, and liking children. For Maine, wondering why everyone must treat you like a kaiser, fostering my U2 obsession, calling me a floppy dog, letting me back in your van after I said you couldn't drive. I know I give you a hard time; thanks for loving me anyway. To Jen S., thanks for flags and letting me call commands a lot. For making "Dandelion Girl", although I get embarrassed when you play it, for cheese and chasing Ian Watt relentlessly, Jason at Chadwick's, phone-farts with J.F. and Annie, your pool, anal pores, Zildjian Man. Thanks for the incredibly dumb things we've done together and the incredibly dumb things we will do. Te quiero. Suzanne, my best friend since 2nd grade, thanks for everything - your house, Barbies, turkey, talking constantly, your family (who I miss), having a crazy dog, still being my friend after so long. I love you, Pooh. Rachel J., I never would have thought we'd be such good friends! We don't seem that much alike, but I was happy to find that we are. I'm sorry for being such a pain in your butt. I've had lots of fun and stress with you since yearbook started - thanks for everything. Sarah T., I know we have to put a prom court picture in! Thanks for walks home, listening to me, your essays, being an eep, laughing at me when I do dumb stuff, being as annoyed with people as I am sometimes. Also, thanks for all the help you've been giving me with yearbook, you wild and crazy guy. To Jen C., thanks for the coffee, for being colorful and happy, and for having such a good voice. Marianne, thanks for driving me home many times, liking Elvis, never giving my flower crown back, complaining about everything with me, Spartans, gym, gum, flags, being fun to laugh at. Sarah V., thanks for having those great legs and for putting on eyeshadow and mascara at camp at six o'clock in the morning. Derek H., thanks for complaining about life with me, the interesting and uninteresting things you know and have experienced, for being the neurotic design editor. "...x???" Good luck with college. To Eric, my sentence-finisher and 5th avenue. I miss you so much. To Emalie P., thanks for being the ass't-captain, being assertive, having many parties, laughing at my inane jokes and songs, being cool. Elissa D., thanks for listening to me whine, and living "right down the street!" For telling me all sorts of things I never wanted to know, molesting me, also being cool. To Emily P., thanks for the bathroom stories, the basement stories, the Curtis stories. I hope you find what you're looking for. (I sound like a U2 song!) Stay healthy (you know what I mean), and good luck. Angie, thanks for river rave, being so pretty, soph. English, always having a sarcastic comeback and a new band name, for hugs and camels. Thanks to Andy, for making me laugh, having anti-lock brakes, making fun of me, the clips, never letting me forget 5th grade. I'm not wearing a necklace in front of you again! To Adam, for analysis, those explicit numbers, punching me, always being around, tall, and nice - in that order. Thanks to Honkus for the brief but memorable relationships, doing magic tricks, and having random things to say. Dave R., for Fuaben and the armpit wave. Dave P., for all your wonderfully fun parties, freestylin' awful rhymes, being so darn cultured, being genuinely nice. To Jesse, for taking care of the Brat Pack. To the Brat Pack - Blake, Dan, and Brian, for being the only reason why I dread coming to yearbook, and also many Smints. To Ryan, for analysis and phys. sci. Bryan, for having pretty hair and a pretty car, perverting my name, knowing what my underwear looks like, calling me Mom, eating all my food sophomore year. To Tom W., for being a track star, and trying to teach me your language. To Stefan, for always having a big smile on your face and for being so bad :)... to the DAP: lookout! Thanks to the rest of marching band, including both past and current members; I had so much fun with you guys. Mr. Reagan, I'll miss your wacky sense of humor, your enthusiasm, and pride. I doubt I'll ever find a band leader who cares so much about his band again. Thanks to the flaggies and Lisa, good luck with next year. Thanks to the yearbook staff, for helping out. Forum staff, good luck. Thanks to the Targeteers, I miss you guys. Dennis, you're the coolest, funniest, most good-hearted person in the world. Thanks for having such good advice for us, bending the rules for us, and making us laugh. Thanks to the "BDP" and others for accepting me as a tagalong. Thanks to the random people with whom I've formed some kind of bond, but cannot mention for lack of space. (Jamie, Chris, Hannah, T.C., Carrie, Vanessa, etc.) I've loved almost all my teachers, but some deserve extra thanks: Mrs. Sullivan (I miss you!), Mr. Kelly, Mrs. Morris, Ms. Laver, Mrs. Eickel, and esp. Mr. Rinaldi - thanks so much for putting up with all the nervous fits we throw. Finally, to Devin, thanks for being my best friend, for being unconventional in a conventional sort of way, and introducing me to Big Macs and Doritos of two kinds... for half-days, Boston Common, Jerry Springer, walks, driving me everywhere, our unending debate over the merits of the Violent Femmes, our unending debates about almost everything... for being so good to me, and - heck, for the last two years, and the next two thousand. I love you so much. In conclusion, I'll miss mostly everyone here at BHS, and I'm grateful for what I've learned and experienced. 'Bye

Activities: Soccer 2,4; Spanish Club 2; Interact 4; School Atmos. 4; Int'l Week 2,4 First of all I would like to thank God for guiding me and getting me where I am today. To my parents: I love you very much. Without your support and advice, I probably wouldn't have been lost. You were the ones who pulled me through my "rough times." Thank you for always being there for me. To Mom: thank you for laughing at your own corny jokes when no one else did! To Dad: Who do you idolize the most? To my sister Christina: I couldn't have asked for a better sister. Our talks were fun but were even funner when I knew you weren't going to tell I love you and remember- Don't even turn into a "ricca chic" or WE'LL HAVE WORDS!! Oh! Be nice to Max!! I love you Max! To my little man Anthony: What can I say? You're quite a character. Thank for being cute and knowing the right ways to aggravate me. You're the best little brother. Stay cute and keep getting those ladies!! love ya To my grandmothers: I love you both for always being there for me. Gramma Connie: you sure kept me in line, and I appreciate it. I love you even though we've had our moments. Gramma Marie: I hate that you live so far away I can't wait to see you again! I love you. Next, To my second family- the Sampsons. You were my home away from home. Thank you for being there. To Paula: for bringing back 80's jokes and making me laugh, Mark just wants to hit you! To Mark: I love your jokes!! To MICHELLE my belle: Oh here we go! You are truly my bestest friend. We've been through much together. Our slapping fight, horny boy at Hampton, our many talks about different "situations", hot tub(eww!), our dress-up photo shoots, etc. Thank for all our good times. I love you and your family. Oh! a piece of advice- stay away from those younger boys and get you a man baby!!(j/k) To my girls LATANYA: Thank for being my older sister. Thank you for your honesty! You looked out for me and I appreciate it! I hope you keep in touch when you leave. I'll miss you a lot. I love you! YOU ARE THE GIRL!!! To ANDREA where can I start? "excuse me. Is that Jodeci you're listening to?", for being my first friend in D.C when we were both dorks, for always letting me talk to you when needed to, PPP, "Jen, where's my lawnmower?", double dates, our Saturday nights!, hallucinating after Cam bridge, always trying to get me to clubs etc. All I have to say- Ms. Stankbreath. Love ya. K.I.T To STACY: My stacy wacey! your car-starting laugh, our guy at the mall "why you runnin, baby?", always yellin at people(T.M), our double date w/ Ian and Jacques! 1/2 hour movie- oh well it's not like we paid!), your pissed off lips, always hating same people, sitting in your room for hours while you fight with dummy, our first big fight, "are you two high?" for your crap car -always breaking down in the worst places-GAS STATION!! thank for everything. love ya babe FORGET about Anurag! LISANDRA: I love you, Sandra! Dogs fly north? (no, definitely don't!), Jen, what should do??? PPP, Int'l week- we were da bomb that night!, serenading people at dad's retirement party with Selena singing Mariah on karaoke, walking around base, chillin at Y.C(What!), N.C.O club dances, "Me gusta cuando llamas mama grande", tongue aerobics, all your lovely advice, for showing me you really could dance/sing, etc. thank you for being the craziest! NATASHA: Tashy! we go way back(7th), walking to school together every day, our sons-cheerio/fruit loop, PPP, hooking me up w/ all my boys(I.D + M.N), your sister almost killing me, mama! drawers behind TV, watching Class Act everyday after school, "Yo Damita, I thought you was gonna play with my frog?", "He so white he's transparent!", thank Tashy Love ya. SARAH: You'll always be one of my girls. We were closer than ever once. Singing our hearts out to Aaliyah+Mariah in my room, going to MGH and getting lost, our late night talks, etc. I love you + I'm sorry for everything that happened. SHARA: you were my girl for all 4 years of H.S. Public speaking, "yo, those shoes are phat!", our bonding moments(crying over stupid boys! You're my girl K.I.T. Love ya. KELLY: All I have to say is you're my Mexican buddy. Representing Mexico!! Forge about cluck cluck boy. MIKE: Thank for all the good times. We've had our moments but leave my cheese ALONE. Love ya! NICK/DAVE: for trying to get me to hang out at McDonalds with you and picking on me all the time. Love you! NICOLE: Oh Damn! What can I possibly say! Our long talks(D.W!), Hampton(the boys), clubs, you talking 100 miles/hour, HAITIANS(you know who), fighting w Jamal at 3:30am, him dancing naked!! etc. thank you for everything! I love you Nicole! CHEA: I don't have you lawnmower! Thank for being so funny. Vatos Locos for ever!!! RICHARD + JUSTIN: you're my favorite white boys! To 95-96 JV soccer team: defensive ditzes! to Chri for putting up w/ our girl talk, Coolio, Pizza Hut etc TERRINA: "love will lead you better", my other Whitney, Thank for everything. To all my other friends: Bree, Jaci

Angela, Michelle W, Darren, Eric, Shane, Ryan, Akil, Kacie, Anthony, Jacques, etc. Thank you for making it fun. MICHELLE WORLEY: It's funny that you live 15 minutes down the road but we never see each other! You've always been one of my good friends ever since 8th grade. I love you lots. Can you CALL SOMEONE!!! Finally-To IAN: We went through a lot together. All our fights, our Saturday nights, coming after school to see me, bringing me chicken quesadillas, your Illtima, semi-formal night(sorry) etc. Thank you for all the good times! I'll never forget you. Love you always. To all of you I didn't mention, I'm sorry. Thank you to everyone! I love you all.

Andrew York

Kacie ,

It's difficult to believe this time has come, and nothing in this world has given us more joy than watching you become the mature and beautiful person you are. We treasure every moment from he took my dollar sooo small, Wilhelm, Gregggy and Gonzo to Vidal, Pinky, your burps and bend over. Your thoughtfulness, inner beauty, compassion and loving ways have been an inspiration to all that know you. Your accomplishments, involvement, and hard work throughout your school years fill us with pride and admiration. Your infectious sense of humor and zest for life has blessed us with complete happiness.

You know how much we will miss your basketball and soccer games, pool parties, and all of the wonderful friends you have brought into our home. We know that you are poised, capable and ready to take on the world. Your heart, ambition, and sense of self will guide you wisely in the years ahead, and you are most deserving of all the opportunities that await you.

Above all, always know that you are loved, respected, and cherished. Be curious, be challenged, and be happy. Be a better cook than Mom, and be home by eleven!!
Congratulations KK - we love you so much...

Elizabeth,

You have been the best daughter and sister in the whole, wide world.

Our special times at Cape Cod, our weekend shopping sprees, skating and dancing recitals, driving adventures, and family gatherings are only the beginning of many fond memories.

May you find great happiness and excitement as you venture to college. Reach for the stars, have fun, maintain your spirit and know that we all love you very much!!!!!!!

Lots of love, Mom, Dad, Larry and Ben

Dave,
Watching you grow into a wonderful young man has been one of our greatest joys! We are so proud of you! Follow your dreams and believe in yourself. Know that we will always love you and be here for you.

Love, Mom, Dad & Tom

Dearest Jen:

We are so very proud of all your accomplishments, your special talents and gifts in the musical field, your gifts of warmth, compassion and love. You are a very special young woman and we love you very much. Lovingly, Mom, Dad and Greg

Dear Andy,

Two quotes come to mind to describe your approach to life:

First, in the words of George Bernard Shaw: "The reasonable man adapts himself to the world; the unreasonable one persists in trying to adapt the world to himself. Therefore all progress depends on the unreasonable man."

And, from Frank McCourt: "It's lovely to know the world can't interfere with the inside of your head."

Keep on being who you are, and don't let anybody interfere with your ideas or your dreams. We are constantly amazed by your thoughts on science and philosophy. You are destined to make a wonderful contribution to our world.

We wish you the best as you juggle all that you have planned for your future.

Dear Mark,

Over the last 18 years we have watched you grow from a fussy baby to a small boy with a body in perpetual motion to a poised and accomplished young man. We cannot put into words how much we love you and how proud we are of you. We admire you for steadfastly pursuing your soccer dreams and never giving up in spite of the losing. We delight in seeing the way your smile lights up your whole face. May God bless and keep you in all your future endeavors.
Love, Mom and Dad

Although what lies ahead is a mystery, the days that have passed before us have woven themselves into memories which we will treasure and never forget. Having you for a son is one of the greatest gifts love has given us. Your character and conviction will make you a success in life. Trust yourself, be your own person, and remember, we will always be there for you.

With Love and Respect,
Mom, Dad, and Craig

D is for daughter, an extra special one.
E is for energy, a lot of which you have.
B is for bills, the ones you pay so promptly.
O is for opportunities, the many that lie ahead.
R is for runner, a fast-paced one you are.
A is for airport, a favorite place of yours.
H is for hours, the "behind-the-wheel" ones.
Congratulations, Deb — we love you!

Mark, eighteen years ago, as a newborn infant, your mother and I would often ponder what your trademark would be on the world around you. Would you engage or withdraw from issues of the day and would you help your peers?

As we look back we are elated. You have emerged as a role model with a good sense of humor balanced by strong ethics, as a team player willing to enthusiastically embrace your fellow classmates and a "can-do" attitude that has propelled your academic and athletic achievements. You have demonstrated on numerous occasions that standing up for your beliefs and credo of fair play gained the respect of your peers and others you touched.

Mark, keep on the course you have plotted-your compass is guiding you well!

Your proud Mom and Dad

Caroline,

Our "amazing athlete" and even more amazing young woman.

Adam Weston,

You're the best! Triplet siblings notwithstanding, you've always been steady as a rock. We admire your disposition, integrity, your many academic, social, athletic and musical gifts, and most of all your sense of humor. We can't imagine our house without you, but we know you will work hard and enjoy your four years at college. Lots of love, Mom and Dad

Tammy,

God never loved me in so sweet a way till he brought you to me and said "Behold your daughter" I LOVE YOU!

Bethany Russo,
As sure as day always turns to night
It's something that even a "Big Girl Princess" can't fight.
You're growing up - here comes the day,
That it's time for you to move away.

There's a wonderful world out there, You'll find many things that you'll want to share.
As each day you continue to grow.
Here are some things we want you to know.

We'll always be so proud of you,
For what you've done and what you'll do.
We'll miss having you around our home,
But we'll be with you, wherever you may roam.

We Really like how you've turned out.
And if you listen carefully, you can still hear Mom shout: "Rickety. Rackety. Rockety Roo.
Come on B. we're for you!"
Love, Dad, Mom Andrea & Pete

We remember the little girl who captured our hearts with the songs she sang and the stories she told.

The afternoons spent watching ballet classes, the Nutcracker performances - the music and the beauty and the young girl who lifted our hearts with her grace.

The young woman, whose intellect reveals meaning in any situation, and whose deeply held values and defiant idealism create a giant in a small frame.

Tomorrow's Rachel will be all of these things, and more.

You are strong and gentle, idealistic and forgiving, dedicated and fun-loving, disciplined and creative.

We love you with all of our hearts.

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE CLASS OF 1998!

Gweny-Poo,

It is hard to believe you are all grown up, and graduating from High School. Soon you will be leaving us, and going off to college to experience a new life. We know you are ready for the exciting new life ahead of you. You have so much to be proud of. We have moved you 7 different times in the past 18 years, twice transplanting you in a totally different country and culture. Despite this, you have always excelled beyond our expectations. Your experiences in Germany will always be the soul of what you are and aspire to be. Take pride and strength in all your accomplishments, as it reflects what a wonderful young lady you have grown to be. We love you and no matter how far you go, you will always be as close as our hearts. Mommy & Daddy

My Baby,

You gave me this when you were just a little girl, and I want to give it back to you as you go off to college and start a life of your own.

Liebe Gwen!
Gluck und Gesundheit,
nicht zu viel Arbeit, Freude mit mir
das Wunsch ich Dir!
Deine Mutter

To Patrick Dwyer - Patrick,
Congratulations! I'm so proud of you - your patience, hard work, wisdom, and kindness. I hope all your dreams come true. You deserve the best!

Love, Mom

To Derek Ho - My dear son Derek,
I am very proud of you and I know you will do well in college. Your career choice will be supported by me.

Love, Mom

Christie,

You've grown into a wonderful young lady. Now it's time to make the world yours. We're very proud of you!

Love, Mom and Dad

Current Events

Great Britain and the world were forced to bid a tearful farewell to Diana, Princess of Wales, after she died in a tragic car accident in Paris in late August, '97. Diana, known as "the people's Princess," was best-remembered for the youthful spirit she brought to the royal family and her work for charity.

On September 5, 1997, the world lost a woman known to many as a living saint. Mother Theresa was among the most highly respected people in the 20th century. Her selfless nature and her work with charities earned her the Nobel Peace Prize in 1979. In true form, she donated her prize money to the needy.

Over several days in September, the 11,000 residents of the Caribbean island Montserrat witnessed the devastation that an active volcano can cause. The eruptions of Montserrat's volcano forced more than two-thirds of the population to evacuate the island, leaving their homes to be consumed by lava.

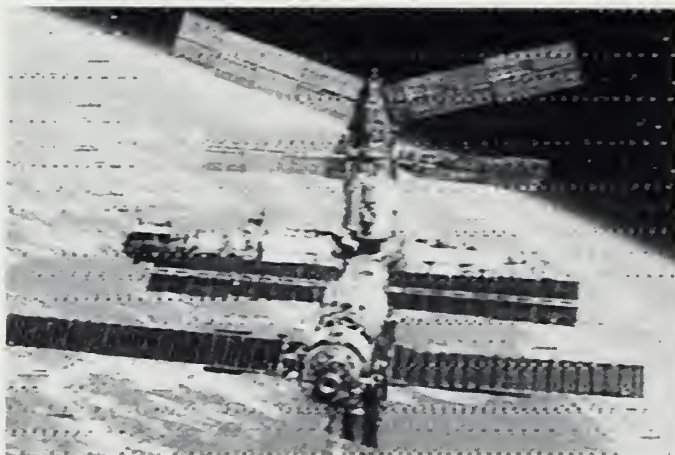

Diana's death was celebrated with a solemn funeral mass followed by a procession that wound through England. Among the millions of mourners expressing their respect and sorrow were her brother, Charles Spencer, her two sons, Princes William and Harry, and her ex-husband, Prince Charles.

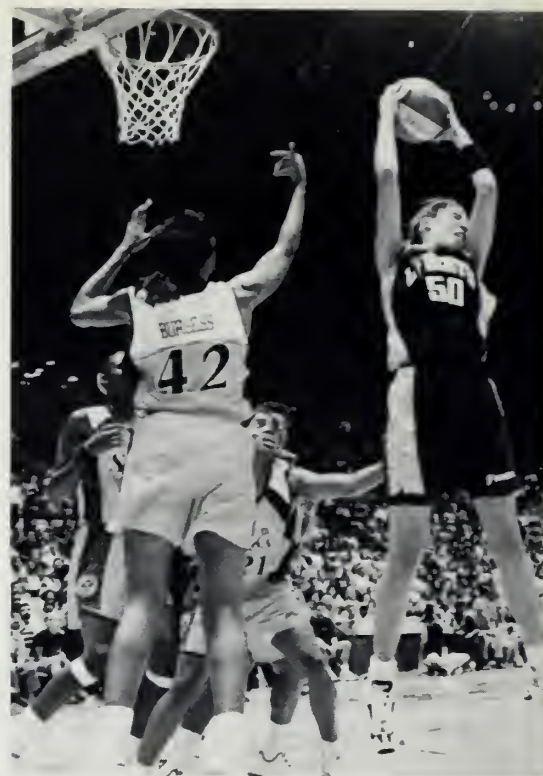

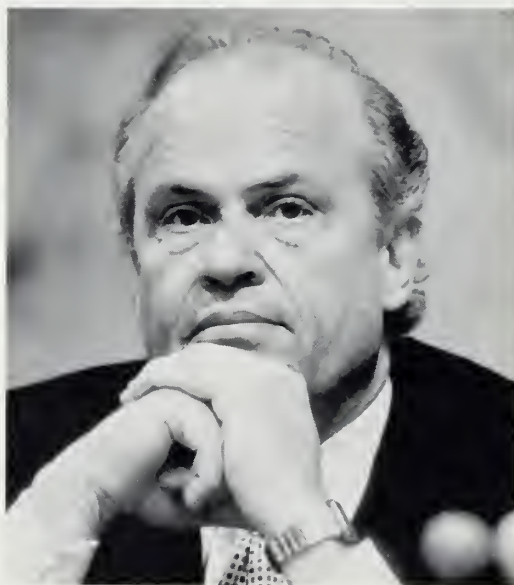

The Sojourner, the first mobile vehicle to land on another planet, rolled out of its landing craft, the Pathfinder, and onto Martian soil in 1997. The Sojourner's purpose on Mars was to transmit information about the composition of Martian soil and rocks. Despite some trouble with the vehicle's communications system, the Sojourner completed its mission successfully.

Launched in 1986, manned by U.S. and Russian astronauts since 1994, the MIR space station completed over 60,000 safe orbits of Earth until 1997, when dangerous malfunctions plagued the Russian shuttle. Fortunately, skilled workers on board were able to fix the station.

The U.S. Senate Governmental Affairs Committee, headed by Tennessee Republican Fred Thompson, investigated alleged campaign fund-raising abuses by Democrats in the 1996 presidential campaign. The committee heard testimony from a wide variety of government officials and big-money political contributors. The key questions raised by the committee concerned the role of foreign money in politics, and whether President Clinton and Vice-President Gore had done anything illegal to raise money for the Democratic party.

The Women's National Basketball Association - WNBA - completed its inaugural season with the Houston Comets defeating the New York Liberty for the championship. As the season came to a close, the WNBA announced that the eight-team league would grow to ten leagues in 1998. The new teams will be Detroit and Washington, D.C.

In 1997, Madeleine Albright advanced to the highest position held by a woman in the American government. She was appointed as Secretary of State by President William Clinton, after serving as Clinton's ambassador to the U.N. Ongoing troubles in the Middle East kept the 60-year-old diplomat busy from the day she was sworn in.

"So, tell me what ya want, what ya really, really want..." Many people in 1997 found themselves humming this addictively catchy phrase from the Spice Girls' song "Wannabe," the first single off of their unfathomably successful album Spice. Sporty, Baby, Posh, Scary, and Ginger Spice deny - in brassy British accents - that they are a one-album wonder band like the New Kids on the Block, and say that unlike NKOTB, they have a message: Girl Power. The Spice Girls have about as many admirers as would-be assassins; only time will tell if their fame can last.

Far left: The Dave Matthews Band has demonstrated over the course of three albums and several years of extensive touring that it has staying power on the record charts. Combining elements of jazz, funk, folk, and world beat music, the group is soulful and subtle in its harmonies and rhythms. The ballad "Crash" was their most successful song in 1997.

Left: One would have been living underground in 1997 to have not heard the Verve Pipe's hit song, "The Freshmen." The Verve Pipe's talent as musicians and the song's poignant subject matter ensured this single's popularity. It enjoyed considerable air time, and a lengthy stay at number one of the pop music charts.

Thirteen-year-old girls found someone new to swoon over in the summer of 1997. Taylor Hanson, one-third of the infectiously cheerful pop group Hanson, found himself the center of thousands of hysterical adolescent girls' attention once he and his two brothers released the irritatingly happy single "MMMBop," off of their album Middle of Nowhere. Success came early to these blond pop princes; Isaac was 16, Taylor was 13, and Zac was 11 when "MMMBop" hit the charts.

BENEATH THE SURFACE, the 1998 yearbook of Bedford High School was printed by Jostens Printing and Publishing Division, 401 Science Park Road, Pennsylvania 16801. The Jostens in-plant consultant was Renee Biggens. The Jostens area representative was John Neister.

The cover was done by Creative Resources and our Design Consultant was Rick Brooks. The cover was finished with a High Gloss Litho 478 material. The photos were taken by Burlington Studios, and various yearbook staffers.

All headlines were set in Avante Garde 24 point. The bodies were written in New Century Schoolbook 13 point. Captions were set in New Century Schoolbook 10 point.

The Publication date for the 312 yearbooks was May 16, 1998.
